PRESIDENT TO MAKE PEACE AN ISSUE AT POLLS

Will Veto Knox Bill if It Is Passed.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—President Wilson has decreed that the Knox peace resolution, pending in the senate, must go with the Versailles treaty into the vortex of party politics.

As chieftain of the Democratic party, the president is declared to sanction a statement issued today by Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, denouncing the peace resolution in the bitterest language printable.

Following declarations yesterday from senate Democrats that they would filibuster against the resolution to prevent its passage—that being the only way they could keep it from rejection and submission to the president for approval or veto, the Democratic chairman makes the resolution a political issue.

Treaty to Be Made Issue.

In Cummings' statement shows that Mr. Wilson is insisting upon the treaty as the real issue. The latest pronunciamento of Chairman Cummings says, in effect, that the issue of the Wilsonian wing of the Democratic party shall be:

Condemnation of the peace resolution.

Chairman Cummings' utterance insists that the administration propose to prevent action on the Knox resolution, if possible, until after the elections. Failing in that, it is certain that the president will veto the resolution, if adopted, and it would then be necessary to pass it over the veto by a two-thirds vote in both houses. It is doubtful if that could be accomplished before the elections.

Clarion Call to Strife.

Chairman Cummings, throwing down the gage of battle today, said:

"The so-called Knox peace resolution as reported by the senate committee on foreign relations is renewed evidence of the moral leprosy which is eating out the heart of the Republican party. In the name of peace it proposes dishonor.

"An analysis of the resolution discloses that, first, it recognizes the defect in the recent house resolution, which attempted to make a separate treaty with Germany by act of congress.

"Second, as an alternative proposition, it requests the president to commence negotiations for a separate peace with Germany.

American Rights Periled.

"Third, it seeks to terminate, by a paper resolution, a state of war without protecting American rights.

"Fourth, it attempts to take advantage of the provisions of the treaty of Versailles without becoming a party to that treaty.

"Fifth, it requests the president to negotiate a separate peace with Austria.

"These are the outstanding features of the resolution. If any group of leaders a year ago had dared to suggest that we should abandon our allies and negotiate a separate treaty of peace they would have found themselves isolated and discredited. Republican leaders have lost their moral sense in their mad lust for power.

Regrets That 1918 Election.

"There has not been one moment since November, 1918, during which America has not suffered in honor, prestige, and power as the result of the elections of that year. Since that time everything has been in confusion, and the frantic attempt of Republican leaders to find a legal method in which to do the dishonorable thing merely adds to the confusion.

"There is but one clear path of duty. It is likewise the path of honor and of peace and of permanent security. The path lies straight before us, and requires simply in ratifying the treaty of peace which our companions in arms have already ratified. The more the matter is debated, the more it will become apparent that there are no substitutes for the requirements of plain duty and American honor."

Tue Killed, Eight Hurt, by Oklahoma Tornado

Muskogee, Okla., May 2.—Five persons are known to have been killed and at least eight badly hurt in a tornado which swept the country north of Chelsea today.

$50,000 WORTH OF INDIGNATION STIRS JOHNSON

1912 and "Burglars" Hiram's Theme.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 2.—[Special.]—Senator Hiram Johnson hasn't any intention of putting up $50,000 to secure a recount of the New Jersey primary votes, as required by the court order entered there yesterday. He spent the final Sunday of the Indiana primary campaign in a series of conferences about it. His campaign manager, Angus McSween, came on from the east to talk it over.

The senator is intensely indignant over the $50,000 proposition, but all he said tonight was: "The burglary at Chicago in 1912 is admitted now by some of the burglars. We do not propose to have that job repeated in the Coliseum next month."

Johnson After Majority.

In the Johnson-Wood fight to carry Indiana on Tuesday the Wood management does not expect to secure a majority, but believes the general will have a plurality of at least 20,000 in a total vote now estimated at 220,000.

Some of Senator Johnson's leaders profess to believe they will get a majority; others, not so confident, say they will be satisfied with a plurality.

Last minute reports indicate that Gov. Lowden's vote will be much larger than had seemed probable, when the contest tended to settle down to a whipping finish between Johnson and Wood. It is now indicated that Gov. Lowden's vote will be well over the 50,000 mark.

Predicts Lowden Victory.

James S. Baldwin, campaign manager for Gov. Lowden, explained that Gov. Lowden had made no attempt to enter Indiana until certain the state would have no "native son" candidate. He pointed out that the Illinois governor had made no attacks on any candidate, adding that to do so would be inconsistent with the character of Gov. Lowden. Expressing the belief that no candidate would obtain the majority necessary to "sew up" the Indiana delegation, Baldwin concluded with the prediction that Gov. Lowden would receive a surprisingly large popular vote in Indiana—and win the nomination at Chicago with the votes of delegates of whom Lowden is the second choice.

Senator Harding, the fourth presidential contender, is believed to have slipped materially.

Democrats Invited In?

Wood, Johnson, and Harding were under the same roof today at the Claypool hotel. The Wood headquarters made much of a card claimed to have been issued in behalf of Johnson, which was a straightaway appeal to all Indiana voters who are opposed to the league of nations, whether Republicans or Democrats, to vote in the Republican primaries for Johnson, something that can be accomplished without difficulty under the Indiana law, particularly as the Democrats have no serious trouble in their own primaries.

It now is generally agreed that the candidate who gets the plurality vote will get the support of the Indiana delegation, on the first two or three ballots at least.

HELD AS $10,000 FORGER; SAYS HE IS MURDOCK'S SON

Roland P. Murdock, who says he is a son of former Congressman Victor Murdock of Kansas, was arrested last night at a south side hotel on charges of cashing $10,000 in forged checks.

Detective Sergeants John Cartan and Thomas McFarland took Murdock to the bureau, along with fifteen empty bottles of a pomade containing a solution of 65 per cent alcohol. The contents had been applied internally. A woman caused the arrest. She said Murdock borrowed money of her and gave her a forged check. The police suppressed her name.

Cartan says Murdock escaped from Forth Leavenworth last April. He had been confined there for posing as a lieutenant of the United States army, Cartan said. Murdock would not talk.

ANOTHER ONE OF CZAR'S ASSASSINS SHOT AS TRAITOR

WARSAW, May 2.—It is semi-officially announced that a man named Posrednicke, who is declared to have been one of the group which assassinated former Emperor Nicholas, was taken from jail and handed over to the bolsheviki, who took him to the Red front. There he was shot for high treason.

A dispatch from Copenhagen last December said the soviet authorities in Russia had punished by death the individual held immediately responsible for the execution of Nicholas and his family at Yekaterinburg in June, 1918. The name of the man put to death was given as Jachontoff, who was said to be a member of the Yekaterinburg soviet.

MEXICO REBEL LABOR EXPECTS A. F. L. BACKING

Encouragement of Gompers Sought.

Agua Prieta, Sonora, May 2.—[By the Associated Press.]—Confirmation of reports of an anti-Carranza labor movement throughout Mexico and the declaration the American Federation of Labor is expected to give its support to the movement were made by Juan Rico, president of the Linotypers' Union of Mexico and secretary of the executive board of the Mexican labor party, here tonight.

According to Señor Rico, the American federation will vouch that the movement is not a bolshevik uprising, but a legitimate attempt to achieve industrial freedom in Mexico.

Expect A. F. of L. Statement.

Mr. Rico insisted that a statement from the American federation could be expected shortly, despite reports that the federation aided in bringing about recognition of Carranza.

Señor Rico announced that the second congress of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, sponsored by the American federation and the regional congress of Mexican workers, scheduled to meet in Mexico City, July 12, would convene either in Havana or Panama on that date, because of the situation in Mexico, Rico explained.

Juarez Bars Carrancistas.

El Paso, Tex., May 2.—Gen. Juan Jose Rios and Manuel Gamboa, Mexican army officers who lost their commands when the state of Sonora seceded from Mexico, have been denied permission to enter Juarez.

Obregon to Lead Revolt?

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—Announcement was made tonight at the Washington headquarters of Gen. Salvador Alvarado, representing Gen. Obregon and the Sonora movement in Mexico, that the revolutionists will soon begin a military movement against Mexico City from Guerrero, Michoacan, and Jalisco.

This movement, it was declared, would be accompanied by a simultaneous effort to occupy the Tampico oil fields and cut off Carranza from those revenues.

Carranza to Call Vote.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 2.—[Special.]—Under date of April 20, written on his official stationery, President Carranza wrote a friend here that he would call a national election for president, and expected the election to be orderly and fairly representative of the people's sentiment.

"I have firmly resolved to retire to private life," he declares, "giving way to the person chosen to take my place. I have no particular choice for the next president."

The letter was made public by Adolfo Carrillo, former Mexican consul general here.

WALES REFUSES TO USE TRAINS DENIED PUBLIC

AUCKLAND, N. Z., May 2.—The Prince of Wales resumed his tour of New Zealand by train today, the strike of the railway men having been ended.

Prior to the settlement of the walkout the prince was told there would be no difficulty in finding men to run the royal train.

"Will they run trains for the people?" the prince inquired.

"At present they will not," a railroad official replied.

"That being so," the prince responded, "they cannot run trains for me. I am one of the people."

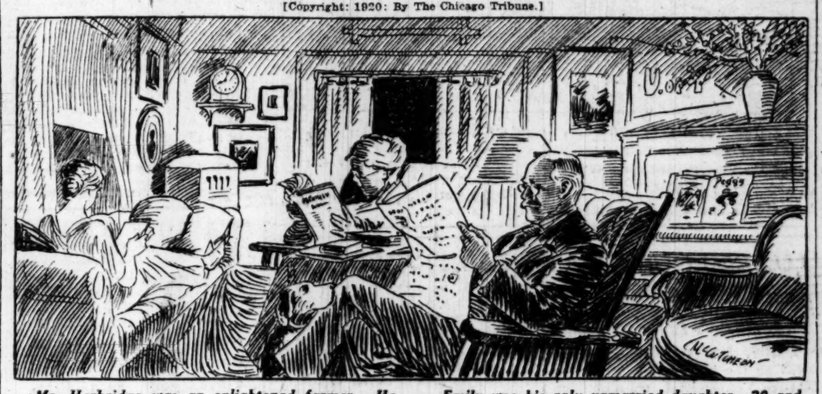
THE RESTLESS AGE

[Copyright: 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]



Mr. Harbridge was an enlightened farmer. He believed that life holds something besides hard work and profits. Each year instead of putting all his profits back into the business he devoted part to making life pleasanter for his wife and daughter.

"The women on the farms have the hard time," he would say, "and it's a good investment to keep them contented."

He followed the same policy with his men. Besides paying them well he provided recreation, the lack of which so often drives labor from the country.

His farms were operated scientifically and the men who worked for him became in time skilled agriculturists. Those who showed industry and intelligence were aided in their desire to become independent farmers.

"The one big human impulse," he often said, "is self-interest. It's the driving force that makes folks work. You've got to give a man something to look forward to—something besides his bare living—if you expect him to go forward. Self-interest is just another name for hope, though it don't sound so nice."

His philosophy was successful. Considering the ambitions and hopes of others as well as his own, he retained help when other farmers were bewailing its scarcity.

"You see, my policy ain't entirely unselfish. I get better work and better results. If a man sticks and does his work I'll help him, and he knows it. If he don't that's his own lookout. There's always some natural drifters who don't stick to one job long enough to do it or them any good. They're hopeless, but the stayer deserves a square deal. He must have the same chance to improve his position that the city worker has."

Mr. Harbridge's two older daughters were the wives of tenant farmers who operated their father's farms on shares.

Emily was his only unmarried daughter—20 and pretty, with eyes brimming over with friendliness.

On a certain evening in April she was sitting with her parents in the living room of the old farm house. Through the window came the fresh, clean smell of spring. Her eyes often sought the clock, but it was not of bedtime she was thinking. Her hair was arranged with special care and her dress was one of her prettiest.

Her father looked up from his newspaper.

"Well," he said as he took off his glasses, "the city folks are having their troubles these days. Labor and capital seem to be getting most of the money, and the 80 per cent in between are getting the worries. They're the ones—the big, helpless, unorganized middle class—that I pity. And that's where most of these boys who are leaving the farms will land. They all want white collar jobs."

He brightened up.

"But you'll see 'em tramping back to the farms before long. They'll get sick of being robbed in the daytime and squeezed into a two by four room at night."

He smiled at the thought.

"By the way, Emily, I was driving past George Wickham's place today and I saw Tom."

Emily looked up quickly.

"I didn't get a chance to talk to him. He was tinkering with an auto out near the barn."

He looked at his daughter.

"There's a level headed boy, Emily. He's sticking to the farm. He won't be carried away by this city fever."

Emily flushed with pleasure.

"He's coming over tonight, father. He telephoned that he wanted to see me about something."

Her eyes were bright as she looked out at the moonlit fields.

TEXAS LANDSLIDE BURIES BAILEY, INDORSES WILSON

Dallas, Tex., May 2.—The element of the Democratic party of Texas which sought to repudiate President Wilson and his administration met defeat in a political landslide at Saturday's Democratic precinct conventions, according to additional but incomplete unofficial returns received today.

Latest figures showed definitely that the "regulars"—those favoring the national administration—had won 1,200 of the 1,400 votes in the state Democratic convention on May 25. The anti-administration forces, headed by former Senator Bailey, according to available returns, had won forty-nine of the state convention votes. One hundred and fifty-one votes were still unaccounted for.

Incomplete returns indicated that the balloting ran about six to one in favor of the national administration. Although the indorsement of Woodrow Wilson was overwhelming, none of the returns mentioned a preference for any candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

NEW YORK MAN'S AUTO DEATH MAY HAVE BEEN CRIME

Mount Vernon, N. Y., May 2.—[Special.]—After following up a number of clews, Chief of Police Van Buren of Bronxville was undecided tonight whether George H. Weaver, vice president of the Remington Typewriter company, who was found dying under his automobile on the White Plains road early this morning, had been deliberately run down by thieves who intended to rob him or whether he lost control of his machine.

Mr. Weaver died while being removed to the Bronxville hospital without regaining consciousness. The car was found with its right side crushed in and forced around a trolley pole. There was blood on the pole and on the tonneau of the car. The body of Mr. Weaver was beneath the machine.

Mr. Weaver spent Saturday afternoon playing golf at the Siwanoy Country club and then went to the home of a friend in Bronxville for dinner. He started in his machine for Manhattan early this morning alone.

"IMMUNE EDDIE" MOBBED ON CAR

Noted Thief Near Death from Wounds.

"Eddie the Immune" Jackson, pickpocket extraordinary, is in the county hospital, dying, physicians say, because of a little mistake. He was hurled from a street car by angry passengers and his skull was fractured.

EDDIE JACKSON.

Eddie tried to pick the pocketbook of a woman on a Halsted street car last night. The woman was escorted by two men, who did not hesitate to use their fists.

He saw the men, but not in time. They were right after him as he leaped from the car. There were no legal friends around to get a writ of habeas corpus, no friendly politician to obtain a continuance, no mysterious influences to protect him, such as Eddie has come to expect.

Crowd Helps in Disaster.

The crowd sided with the two assailants.

Jackson was beaten almost beyond recognition. His body was bruised. His clothing was torn and soiled. When they took him to the county hospital he was unconscious.

He regained consciousness for a minute, just enough to say he was "Joe Taylor" of 1624 Warren avenue. A policeman laughed, and the victim went back into forgetfulness.

Policeman Identifies Him.

"Taylor, eh?" said the policeman. "If that isn't Eddie Jackson I'm Bryan. That address he gave is the home of Augustus Bassi, Jackson's father-in-law; and I've seen Eddie Jackson so many times I can recognize him even now. How bad is he hurt?"

"Skull fracture," said the doctor. "Bad one. He may pull through, but I doubt it."

HOTEL MANAGER AND HOUSE 'DICK' FIGHT IN LOBBY

Excitement reigned supreme in the lobby the Brevoort hotel last night about 9 o'clock, and for several crowded minutes from then on, when William Delaney, the manager, and James Fitzmorris, the house detective, clashed in fistic and pedalistic combat.

They fought, in the vernacular, all over the lot. After what seemed a reasonable time some of the fifty or more witnesses in the lobby got between the gladiators and separated them. Fitzmorris ruefully nursed a chin that had met the toe of Delaney's winter shoes, and told his version. Delaney could not be reached.

"Delaney has been giving his friends special privileges," Fitzmorris said, "such as allowing them to occupy rooms for poker, etc. Last week I put out four men who had been obstreperous, and he bawled me. Which did not make for the entente cordial. Then yesterday a fellow was raising Cain in a room and I told him to move. He told me he was a friend of Delaney and I couldn't throw him out, so I did. Delaney met me on the steps coming up from the dining room in the basement tonight and made a pass at me, and that's how it happened. I'm going to take it up with the hotel owner today."

Fly 3 1-2 Miles Into Skies to Watch the Eclipse

New York, May 2.—The eclipse of the moon tonight was observed here by Lieut. J. H. Tilton and W. H. Cushing of the Rockaway Beach naval air station at a height of nearly three and one-half miles. The two lieutenants ascended in the naval hydroairplane N-9, remaining in the air one and one-half hours.

Baden Workers, Hungry, Threaten General Strike

GENEVA, May 2.—A serious food shortage in the duchy of Baden is reported by the Basle National Zeitung correspondent, who attributes the scarcity to the interruption of normal conditions through the recent events in the Frankfort region. Workmen are threatening a general strike unless more food is received.

STORES OF JOHN WANAMAKER CUT ALL PRICES 20%

Saving of $4,000,000 to the Public.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—[Special.]—John Wanamaker today announced a straight cut of 20 per cent in the prices of all merchandise in the Wanamaker stores in Philadelphia and New York.

Coupled with the reduction in prices is the pledge of Mr. Wanamaker that he will expend $1,000,000 each week in the purchase of desirable merchandise, paying spot cash on day of delivery, in order that the 20 per cent reduction sales may be continued.

Sense of Duty to Public.

Mr. Wanamaker makes clear in his announcement that his sense of duty in this emergency of soaring living costs impelled his decision to assist the public in battling with the rising tide of high prices. Estimating the Wanamaker stocks at upward of $20,000,000, the reductions aggregate not less than $4,000,000.

"The facts given out by the federal reserve board, that there is a resumption of the upward trend of prices, put a new pressure upon us as merchants to do something to create a breakwater against this higher wave of costs rising to submerge the people by increasing their burdens," Mr. Wanamaker said.

"We believe we have an incumbent duty to at least try to do something to help the consumers bear the excessive burdens of the hour.

"We are simply mastered by a spirit of duty to help the people in lowering selling prices of merchandise and bring on more quickly the 'better days coming' to this nation."

20% Off Old Prices.

No new price tags will be placed on the merchandise to be sold. Everything from pins to pearls, from pencils to pianos, will be sold at 20 per cent off the marked selling price.

Stipulations are made that nothing will be sent "C. O. D." and no goods will be sent on approval.

A comparatively few articles, amounting in value to $50,000 or less, which were purchased with certain price restrictions which cannot honorably be changed, and the charges in the tearoom and dairy restaurant, are not included in the reduction.

Praise by Official.

When Fair Price Commissioner Franklin B. McLain was informed of Mr. Wanamaker's announcement he said:

"I had a talk with John Wanamaker on efforts to reduce the high cost of living some time ago, and he said he would be glad to cooperate to the best of his ability and that later on he would give some incontrovertible evidence of it. This announcement is it.

"It is in keeping with the high public spirit which he always has displayed throughout his career. It is simply a concrete expression of that devotion to the golden rule which Mr. Wanamaker has not only always preached but which he has consistently practiced.

"It will be the most helpful thing that can happen to help in the fight to reduce the high cost of living.

"It will set the pace that others will have to follow."

Beaten in Track Meet, Schoolboy Hangs Himself

Pueblo, Colo., May 2.—Victor Beck, 15, hanged himself last night because he didn't win an event in the high school track meet in which he contested yesterday. Mrs. Josephine Beck, his mother, found the lad's body in a barn.

FUSCO, CIFALDO VANISH AS VINCI TRIAL OPENS

'Big Tim' Grins; T've Lots of Friends.'

"Tony" Fusco and "Tony" Cifaldo, essential witnesses in the trials of "Big Tim" Murphy, "Mike" Carozzo, Vincenzo Cosmano, and James Vinci for the murder of "Moss" Enright, vanished last night.

A desperate eleventh hour search, instituted by the state's attorney's office, failed to produce any trace of the men. The trial of Vinci opens before Judge Sabath in the Criminal court this morning, and the state was anxious to have the two men present.

Unless Fusco and Cifaldo are found grave doubts of the possibility of a conviction in the Vinci case were expressed last night by attorneys for both prosecution and defense. And with Vinci freed, his alleged confession which implicated the other trio repudiated, the state's case against Murphy and his associates would have lost a greater part of its strength, it was admitted.

Feared the "Camorra"

That the "camorra," notorious underworld Italian society, might have been responsible for the disappearance of the two men, was freely rumored last night. Cosmano and Carozzo are recognized leaders in the Italian communities. Cifaldo, once under their protection, is now outlawed as a "squealer."

Rather than face the vengeance of Carozzo's friends, or of the society itself, it was stated that he had fled the city, possibly to return to Italy.

Unless the whereabouts of the missing witnesses is ascertained this morning, federal aid will be requested, it was said, to determine if passports have been issued to them since their release.

Released on Court Orders.

The arrest of Murphy, Cosmano, Carozzo and Vinci was heralded far and wide as a triumph of civil law over gang law. Swift prosecution and a demand for the death penalty in each case was promised. All witnesses were held without bail as material to the prosecution of the case.

Then Cifaldo, who had been kept as a guest of the state at the Briggs house, obtained his release on $5,000 bail after a hearing before Chief Justice Robert E. Crowe on March 29.

Two days later Fusco was released after habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted. Both men were served with subpoenas as witnesses in the Vinci and other cases.

Repudiated Confession.

On March 31, Vinci, who, State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne declared, had confessed to being the driver of the death car from which a hail of shotgun slugs was poured into Enright's body in front of the latter's home on the evening of Feb. 3, was taken to the county jail.

Once behind the bars, his first act was to repudiate his confession, alleging that whatever statement he did make was obtained through use of force and intimidation. The state's attorney, who previously had intimated that Vinci would be granted immunity if he testified against Murphy and the other two, immediately pushed plans for Vinci's prosecution.

The disappearance of Fusco and Cifaldo was first indicated to a TRIBUNE reporter when a dozen or more associates of the two missing men were brought to the state's attorney's office for questioning yesterday afternoon.

What the Lawyers Said.

Then James C. (Ropes) O'Brien, assistant state's attorney, said he "had heard that they were unable to serve a subpoena on Cifaldo."

Assistant State's Attorney John Prystalski, in charge of the case, was called on the telephone.

"I may have something to say on that angle of the case later, but not now," he stated.

Attorney Clarence Darrow, counsel for Cosmano, was called.

"Big Tim" Comments.

"There'll be a lot of doings in this case before we get through that I can't tell you now," he grinned, as he winked expressively. "You know, I'm no piker. I've got a lot of friends in this town. You'd open your eyes if I put you wise to everything, but my lips are tied. You know that.

"If Fusco and Cifaldo have blown perhaps it was because they knew their testimony was all lies anyhow."

State Senator James J. Barbour, attorney for Vinci, professed ignorance. "Just got back from a political tour. Don't know a thing," was his answer.

Then, out of the night, came a mysterious telephone call—from a woman. It was the same woman who had called THE TRIBUNE previously on developments in the Enright case—each time with reliable information.

Said Vinci Named Murphy.

Ten days after the murder of Enright, State's Attorney Hoyne announced that he had received a complete confession of the crime from Vinci. In Mr. Hoyne's story, as he related it to reporters, Vinci named Murphy, Cosmano, and Carozzo as the instigators of the crime. He told of a week's rehearsal of the killing and of the culmination of it when Cosmano, riding in the rear seat of the machine, poked the sawed off shotgun through the curtains and fired.

After Vinci had been taken to the county jail he talked to reporters.

"I never made any confession," he said. "After I had been given something to eat I asked for water. In the bottom of the glass was some white powder. When I asked what it was they told me, 'Only a little sugar.' I don't know what I said after that, but I believe the state's attorney's office made some promise of immunity. I did not drive the car and had nothing to confess. I do not know Murphy or Carozzo."

Five Witnesses to Confession.

"I don't care what he denied," replied Mr. Hoyne when shown the Vinci repudiation. "We have five witnesses to his confession. It is perfectly plain that an attempt is being made to protect the murderers of Enright and that every effort is being made to break down the state's case. I never had a prosecution where so many obstacles were put in the way."

Cifaldo, in his statement to the state's attorney's office following his arrest, is said to have identified Vinci as the chauffeur of the death car. On his revelations Vinci was arrested, and because of his evidence the state's case was declared to be stronger against Vinci than against the other three.

Associate of Carozzo.

Cifaldo was an associate of Carozzo. Three years previous to the Enright killing he cut the throat of Nicholas Cozzo, who owed Carozzo $500 which he refused to pay, and left his victim to bleed to death on the lake front. He was given from one year to life for manslaughter. When arrested he declared Carozzo had tried to get him to "do the Enright job," but he refused.

"I stood for one penitentiary sentence," he is alleged to have said, "and I'll be damned if I am going to stand for another. They wanted me to pull the Enright job, but I've been straight ever since I got out of Joliet and I said I wasn't going to do another stretch. So when they found they couldn't get me they got some one else."

On Cifaldo's identification and revelations the major part of the case against Carozzo, Cosmano, Murphy, and Vinci was built.

Fusco appeared first voluntarily in the case to establish an alibi for Carozzo. He was a bartender at Twenty-second street and Wabash avenue. He detailed every movement of Carozzo's during the afternoon and evening of the killing, but was later held as a material witness for cause not given out by the state's attorney.

FRANCE BACKS POLISH DRIVE AGAINST REDS

Gives Arms to Get Ukraine Wheat.

BY WALTER DURANTY.

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright 1920.]

PARIS, May 2.—In a whirlwind campaign of less than a week the Poles have inflicted the most serious defeat yet experienced by the Russian soviet army. In the early days of the "Red" struggles against "White" generals they had bigger losses on paper, but all that meant was that masses of troops had changed camps without fighting. This is a real defeat in battle by a hereditary enemy.

May 5 is the Poles' greatest historical anniversary, and fired by memories the Poles have, momentarily at least, forgotten internal grievances in a burst of united patriotic effort.

The real goal of their offensive is Odessa, the most important port of the czar's empire. The Poles do not pretend to seize it for themselves. By a clever arrangement—whose main lines were doubtless dictated farther west than Warsaw—they are now in the position of "protectors" of Ukrainian independence against soviet tyranny.

France Behind Poland.

The Ukrainian leader, Petlura, will have vivid gratitude for Polish help, and it will be his evident interest to remain friendly and, if he can, keep Ukraine friendly with the only nation in eastern Europe that has a powerful and active western backer.

For behind Poland stands France, financially exhausted, it may be, but possessing huge stores of arms and munitions and possessing, too, able, devoted officers to instruct and lead Polish troops.

The worst cause of France's financial weakness is the enormous excess of its imports over exports and the biggest single import is wheat—wheat it must buy from countries whose exchange is at an intolerable premium—a premium ever mounting. If Odessa can be securely held by France's friends the vast wheat stores of Ukraine—Europe's granary—would become available to French shippers.

Would Pay in Polish Money.

Instead of paying in dollars, France would pay in rubles or in Polish money, both far below French currency. Such contingency would be far preferable to the doubtful effects of Polish occupation of Moscow, which might have the chief result of uniting all Russia in bitter guerrilla warfare against them.

If the Poles can behave reasonably and not offend Ukrainian susceptibilities in holding Kiev, Kitcheneff, and Odessa, France will have gained the greatest victory since Foch's famous counter offensive of July, 1918.

Berlin Hopes to Retain Territory of Plebiscites

LONDON, May 2.—The German government has sent the Germans of upper Silesia, Schleswig-Holstein, Malmedy, and the Saare region an appeal saying that although the inhabitants of these regions are subject to a plebiscite and cannot participate in the reichstag election on June 6, there is no doubt when the time comes for a decision these regions will show by a crushing majority their desire forever to remain attached to Germany, says a Brussels dispatch to the Times.

POLES CONTINUE BIG DRIVE

1—Polish cavalry is in the outskirts of Kiev. Mohilev has fallen and the Twelfth Red army is reported badly crippled.

2—The 76th and 44th divisions of the Reds are reported trapped at Berdichev and Jitomir.

3—The Reds have taken Baku, the great Caspian oil port, and have frustrated the British plans to hold the town.

LUXEMBOURG HAS WORLD PARLEY ON TRADE THIS WEEK

PARIS, May 2.—World problems, such as the high cost of living, exchange, commercial transportation, aerial commerce, and national debts, are on the program of the International Parliamentary Conference of Commerce, which is to be in session at Luxembourg May 4 to 7.

Two hundred delegates have arrived, and others are on their way from Belgium, Brazil, China, Finland, Great Britain, Greece, Italy, Japan, Poland, Portugal, Roumania, Czecho-Slovakia, and Jugo-Slavia. Ambassador Wallace has designated a commercial attaché of the United States embassy to attend the sessions.

The interparliamentary conference was inaugurated before the war at the instance of the commercial committee at the British parliament. It first met at Brussels in June, 1914.

Swiss Decide 8 Hour Day Is Quite Impracticable

BERNE, April 30.—The government considers it impracticable to carry out the eight hour working day as provided by the Washington labor congress. Parliament came to this decision at its closing session today. It proposed that there be a broader interpretation of the labor congress decision or that it be amended.

TRADE ENVOYS OF REDS, SPURNED BY ALLIES, GO HOME

LONDON, May 3.—Russia's trade delegation at Copenhagen has decided to return to Russia owing to the reported refusal of Great Britain to admit Maxim Litvinoff to England and because no answer was received to its appeal to the San Remo conference that the trade negotiations be transferred to some other country, says a dispatch to the Daily Herald from the Danish capital.

Danes and Reds Agree.

COPENHAGEN, May 2.—According to the Politiken, a copy of the trade agreement entered into yesterday between M. Krassin, bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, and Danish trade leaders, was handed to the diplomatic representatives of the United States and the entente.

Australia, Shy of Wheat, Asks Britain for Grace

LONDON, May 2.—Owing to the bad season, there is fear that Australia may have to import wheat in 1921, says a dispatch to the London Times from Sydney. The wheat board recently asked Great Britain to forego the balance of 1,500,000 tons owing her, but she refused. West Australia already has refused to contribute toward the British shipments, and other states are being urged to take the same course.

FOREIGN NEWS —IN BRIEF—

BEIRUT.—Evacuation of Adana by French places more Americans in Cilicia in grave peril.

PARIS.—France backing Polish drive against Russian Reds by furnishing arms so it can get Ukraine wheat at a fair price.

PARIS.—The grip of the Reds on French labor appears broken. The general strike is admittedly doomed to failure. Premier Millerand, encouraged by popular support, has defied the radicals.

DUBLIN.—Sinn Fein volunteers capture six bandits who robbed Cork bank of $90,000; try and sentence them to deportation; constable shot and police battle mob; all hunger strikers freed from Belfast jail.

Soviets Put Prisoners to Work in Production

LONDON, May 2.—A wireless dispatch from Moscow today says that in order to enable prisoners to participate in productive work the soviet government has decreed amnesty except for those condemned as counter revolutionaries, thugs, bandits, or dangerous criminals. Persons released will be divided into two categories—minor offenders, who will be liberated absolutely on giving an undertaking to engage in useful work, and grave offenders, who will be assigned to work under surveillance.

MERRY WARRIORS IN WAR ON FAT HIKE, HIKE, HIKE

50 Women and Men Also Race, Do Stunts.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Forty men and women, all large and laughing, walked more than six miles with me yesterday and made such a wonderful showing that the reducing contest between my class and Dr. John Dill Robertson's class of women is going down on the pages of Chicago history as an event.

An EVENT, if you please. One that will be long remembered. All along the path of march were crowds of people who looked and wondered and called: "What's it all about?"

When we arrived at Lincoln park and had foot races and obstacle races and breathing races we had a crowd watching us that would have warmed the heart of Barnum.

All Meagerly Breakfasted.

We assembled in the editorial department of the world's greatest newspaper at 10:30 yesterday morning. Fifty of us. Thirty-five men and fifteen women. Tons and tons of us. All meagerly breakfasted on our reducing diets and feeling in the best of health.

Dr. Robertson was kept away by previous engagements, but his crowd of reducers made up for him with their pep.

We started out. Down the stairs, out on the sidewalk, and to Michigan boulevard.

At the corner of Wabash avenue and Madison street my two star pupils, Bill Nye and M. G. Evans, halted the parade to present me with a beautiful bouquet. They're the grandest men! It warmed the cockles of my heart.

Women Are Impressive.

On Michigan we fell into squads or fours, or whatever they fall into in that man's army, and commenced our hike in earnest.

Miss Nellie Leonard, who tipped the scale at 323 when the race started, was the most impressive woman. She was assisted in the impression by Miss Julia Ross, Miss Susie M. Schlie, Miss T. A. Wilcox, Miss Nettie Ramey, Miss Emma Borcher, Miss Harriet Frank, the Misses Vera and Anita Van Guns, Mrs. E. E. Poole, and several others.

We proceeded merrily until we reached Delaware place, where Miss Leonard, who had been straggling along in the rear with Dr. Ben L. Reitman, threw up the sponge.

Miss Ross Wins Race.

When we arrived in the park we had six women's race, which was won by no other than Miss Julia Ross. In the meantime the Misses Vera and Anita Van Guns had been climbing trees, jumping off of buildings, and vamping the hearts of my men. Right in the midst of the games Mrs. Walter Kempster arrived.

It was the happiest time we have had yet. Fifty of us—just think of it.

Once "Puddin'" Morrissey got out of step and, despite the continued rebukes of the drill master, Maj. William Channing Barrett, he wouldn't change his step. So we changed the step of the rest of the army.

Out Again Next Sunday.

We'll be out again next Sunday, and I hope we will have a hundred. Everybody can come. Bring your wives and your husbands and your friends. And if you haven't any friends in the gang come on along anyway. It's good for your health.

Now, men, you must follow the diets I have fixed and you, ladies, must follow the ones given by Dr. Robertson. Each class must continue to attend the gymnasium every day for the workouts.

And next week we'll have another walk. Don't forget.

SINN FEIN POLICE TO EXILE 6 CORK BANK BANDITS

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920.]

DUBLIN, May 2.—There have been further startling developments in connection with the highway robbery of $90,000 from Cork bank officials and the subsequent kidnapping by Sinn Feiners of six men supposed to have been concerned in the theft.

It is now understood their captors sentenced six men to be deported, and the sentence will be carried out, but the place of deportation is kept secret.

Sinn Fein volunteers, it now appears, were possessed of full information as to the identity of the persons concerned in the robbery. They tried them and sentenced them, and it is said the men signed confessions acknowledging their guilt, the bank officials were informed.

About $45,000 of the stolen money has been recovered, and the men would have handed it over to them if the officials so desired.

Many Land Disorders.

LONDON, May 2.—The land agitation in West Ireland is continuing to make rapid headway, according to a dispatch to the London Times, and has spread to County Clare. Cattle driving and other forms of intimidation are of almost daily occurrence. Grazing lands are stripped of their stock, fences and gates are broken; walls are smashed and houses fired into by armed parties. Large and small holders alike are the victims.

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Washington Bureau of The Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL, addressing a massmeeting in interest of the Interchurch World movement, pleaded for a revival of church enforcement of the moral law and discipline of its members.

PRESIDENT WILSON has decreed that the Knox peace resolution must go with the Versailles treaty into the vortex of party politics.

DETAILS of the increased cost of living for fourteen American cities made public today by the department of labor give Chicago's percentage from December, 1914, up to December, 1919, as 100.61.

ARGENTINE newspapers report indications that the Japanese are preparing for an extensive colonization program in South America.

BELASCO PLANS ENGLISH TALENT FOR U. S. STAGE

May Operate Theater in London.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

LONDON, May 2.—David Belasco, American producer, will sail homeward on the Baltic on Wednesday after a six weeks' visit to England and France, during which he has seen every play now running.

The chief object of Mr. Belasco's visit was to confer with a British syndicate which has secured real estate in the best London theater district and has asked him to build and run a modern theater, dividing time between New York and London. Mr. Belasco has gone thoroughly into the matter and while he has not given a decision he said today he is considering the subject favorably.

At this moment labor conditions are too unsettled to undertake a big building scheme in London, but as soon as they are settled down it is likely the plan will be carried out.

Urged to Come.

"I was a guest at a dinner the other day at which was nearly every London manager of importance, and every man urged me to come. There is no jealousy here against an American who knows his job, doesn't boast, and doesn't try to teach the men who know as much as he does."

Mr. Belasco is taking back the offers of several British plays, but has made no definite contracts.

Sees Much English Talent.

He is much impressed with the wealth of talent in London, especially for minor parts, and he declares he has seen a dozen girls and men who can be developed into great artists. He has their names for future reference, and New York and Chicago may see some of them before long. He regards London as one of the most promising theatrical fields in the world.

"HATE WAR, LOVE LIBERTY MORE," BISHOPS' VIEW

Methodists Get Ecumenical Message.

Des Moines, Ia., May 2.—[Special.]—Eight thousand persons heard Bishop William F. McDowell's episcopal address this afternoon to the Methodist general conference. It was in the nature of a summary of the views of the thirty-four bishops of the denomination—an ecumenical message.

"We did not like war," said Bishop McDowell. "We hated it, though we distinguish between a war of aggression and a war of defense. We do not like war now. We hate it. But we love liberty, honor, and humanity more than we love a false and safe peace.

"We reaffirm that the church must be truly democratic in itself, in its parts, in its relations, and in its operations. Autocracy does not belong to Christ's democratic kingdom as pictured in the New Testament. We do not need to encourage the tendency toward monarchy or bureaucracy or individual authority. Let us, therefore, not set up or tolerate any autocracy within the church.

Church Falls in Care of Youth.

"The Protestant church as a whole has never been wise or adequate in its care or thought of youth. It has made adult creeds, adult orders of worship, adult church life, even adult buildings, or middle aged churches, with middle aged standards, practices, and usages. The church has been sentimental and unpractical concerning childhood, impatient and inefficient concerning youth.

"Our faces are set as flint against every proposal to render temperance laws, and especially the eighteenth amendment, ineffective, or null and void, by subterfuge legislation or compromise enactments. Evasion of laws regularly passed leads to anarchy and disregard of law. Lynching and other crimes follow the evasion of the fifteenth amendment. Anarchy will follow the evasion of the eighteenth. The liquor traffic has always been in criminal attitude to laws. It now adds to this criminal attitude a hypocritical whine and shameless effort at evasion and compromise. The Methodist Episcopal church puts upon its banner in letters that can be read across the world: 'No compromise now and no nullification anywhere.'

Church Must Steady World.

"We do not hesitate to say that in the day of storm and stress the church of Christ must guide as it must steady the world. If it does not speak the word of eternal life, who shall speak? It knows the way home—the way for men and society. It must point that way. It has the ideals for men and society. Its task today is to guide a perplexed and bewildered world.

"No single factor in the world-wide social problem is more difficult and complicated than the one we call the race question. A careful student declares that 'the race problem is one of the two greatest unsolved problems in the world today.' It is neither local nor national. It faces east and west; it faces north and south. The races are everywhere fronting one another. They have all their questions in their eyes, all their weapons in their hands.

"The Christian church stands at the center of mingling, multi-covered multitudes that may make a new Babel or a new pentecost in the next decade. If the Christian church fails it will be Babel and such a war of races in the world as will make all other wars seem small. Such a war will wreck the world. If the church now lacks intelligence, wisdom, heart, conscience, or the inspiration that Joel predicted and Peter saw it will be powerless in this day of challenge and opportunity."

The address of the bishops was the only one on the program before the conference today. The business sessions will be resumed tomorrow morning.

WAR EMERGENCY SHIPS NEARLY ALL SOLD BY THE NAVY

Washington, D. C., May 2.—Demobilization of the navy from the maximum of 2,400 ships operated during the war, including hundreds of vessels, from battleships to yachts and anti-submarine craft, acquired for the emergency, is now virtually complete, it was announced today. The reduction in ships, it was said, has been almost proportionate to the demobilization of 400,000 in personnel.

The largest vessels remaining to be sold are the Nopatin and Narragansett, 3,500 ton passenger steamers taken over for transport service, for which bids already have been asked.

COLBY THINKS WORLD ON BRINK OF DISASTER

New York, May 2.—In a plea for American relief for the distressed of Europe, made at a relief meeting here tonight, Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby declared: "The world is really at the brink, not of a great disaster but of utter disaster."

Emphasizing the need for physicians and medical supplies in certain areas of Europe, he said:

"Let us not be profiteers upon our geographical position. Let us not be profiteers upon our comfort and security and God given and personally quite undeserved commercial and trade advantages."

TIME FOR CHURCH TO CLEAN HOUSE, MARSHALL SAYS

Vice President Arraigns It for Insincerity.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—Vice President Marshall today arraigned the church for backsliding and insincerity during an address at a massmeeting in the interest of the Interchurch World movement.

Urging the church to clean house and to resume functions it has turned over to the state, such as looking strictly after enforcement of the moral law, the vice president fired broadsides at church elders who work children to death in their factories and deacons who make church contributions out of excess profits.

Should Turn New Leaf.

"Gentlemen may cry 'Peace! Peace!'" the vice president said, "but there will be no peace until the church resumes its functions, renews its faith, and proves its faith by its works.

"It is idle to legislate for purity if the priest above his book is to leer at his neighbor's wife.

"It is vain to enact laws punishing murder if the elders are to continue working little children to death.

"It is useless to forbid larceny if the deacons make large church contributions out of excess profits wrung jointly from labor and the ultimate consumer.

"The church, with a complacent smile, has turned over to the state the enforcement of the moral law, and the state has failed, as it always will, to enforce it, while the man on the street sneers at the church.

Consistent Conduct Is Urged.

"Awake, O Zion, and if you really believe in the communion of the saints, prove it by consistent conduct. This is no holier than thou message. I myself am a sinner.

"The man on the street is not tired of the words of the Nazarene. When the church takes back the disciplining of the moral and religious life of its members, when it trains up its children with fixed views, when it proves its faith in the communion of the saints by its works, its courts will be thronged with worshipers and there will be no need for patchwork legislation to reconcile labor and capital, nation and nation.

"This, O God, make the supreme aim and the one motive of all those united in this great movement. If it is not, then our money might as well be spent upon a Roman holiday."

Geddes Also a Speaker.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British ambassador, also a speaker at the meeting, questioned the survival of democracies unless the church compels a revival of true religion, upon which civilization is based.

"There is a question of great importance in many countries in Europe at the present time that I believe you, too, may have to face," said the British ambassador. "It is purely political in form. It is absolutely religious in its answer. It is this: Is true democracy to survive, or is power in so-called democratic countries to pass into the hands of a determined minority that always knows what it wants—loot—and that knows how to get it—by bribery, perhaps; by blackmail, perhaps; by terrorism, perhaps, or by subtle corruption?

"And whenever that question has to be asked in any nation, I believe the true answer depends upon whether a majority of your citizens are subjects of God Almighty or worshipers before the false gods."

Bride and Bridegroom as They Looked Fifty Years Ago and as They Look Today, Celebrating Their Golden Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Cleaver, as they were and as they are. Below The Tribune account of their wedding, published May 3, 1870.

THEIR MARRIAGE COACH A BUGGY 50 YEARS AGO TODAY

Wedding Bells Again for Chicago Pair.

Somewhere in the Colossus of brick and steel that is Chicago there dwells the soul of the city, the essence of its being—at once the reason and the inspiration of its progress. What is the soul? Simply the aggregate of qualities possessed by the ordinary, God fearing citizen, content to pursue the even tenor of his normal way. As news is reckoned he is obscure, for he seldom lifts up his voice in the halls of politics, and his constructive life is barren of material for the reporter's pencil. And so this little journey——

Fifty years ago today, Charles Cleaver and Ida Eddy were seated in Mr. Cleaver's buggy, attached to which was the best horse the farm over on the south side boasted. They were driving north in Ellis avenue—an 18 year old lass and a lad of 20. They stopped at the hitching rail in front of the Ninth Presbyterian church. It was their wedding day.

"It's Been a Happy Life."

"Yes," said Mr. Cleaver yesterday, "it's been a happy life, we've led. Eh, mother?"

He stroked his snow white goatee. A reminiscent look came into his twinkling blue eyes. Mrs. Cleaver was seated opposite him, in an old fashioned rocking chair in the front room of their apartment at 5427 University avenue. One knew why he called her mother. A sweetfaced woman, with gentle manners, which time had only accentuated.

"Yes, Charlie," she smiled, "we have so much to be thankful for."

"I don't know as there's much to rite about for the papers, even if tomorrow is our golden wedding anniversary," said Mr. Cleaver.

Their Simple Story.

They have had seven children. Two died as babies, one as a woman of 26. They had reared them carefully. All have done well. Throughout the fifty years they have attended church each Sunday; helped the sick and needy; participated in all neighborhood activities that could advance the weal of the community; and Mr. Cleaver has always studied his ballot religiously "to vote for the candidate I consider the best man for the job."

They had taken a honeymoon trip to Europe. Mr. Cleaver's father was one of the large landholders of Chicago. He had bought for $1.25 an acre a 160 acre farm in the vicinity of Cottage Grove avenue and Thirty-ninth and Forty-fourth streets. But he disposed of it in trade. Then came the fire. The family fortune was hard hit.

Amasses a Competence.

Young Cleaver faced the task of making his own way. He started in to work for John V. Farwell & Co. Later he joined an electrical concern. By rigid economy he saved enough to embark in the real estate business, where he amassed sufficient to retire some years ago.

One of the cherished possessions of the Cleavers is a clipping from THE TRIBUNE of May 3, 1870, containing an account of their wedding. They also have their wedding pictures. These are reproduced in another column of this issue. Sartorial fashions have changed somewhat since 1870.

The anniversary will be held at the home of one of their daughters, Mrs. Harold F. White, 5314 University avenue. And among those present will be four of the original bridal party—William A. Bond, H. B. Goodman, Myra D. Cleaver, and William Henry Cleaver.

"I'm sorry I can't give you more to write about," said Mr. Cleaver in parting.

Fashionable Wedding.

A fashionable wedding took place last evening at the Ninth Presbyterian Church, Miss Ida A. Eddy and Charles S. Cleaver being the happy principals. Extensive preparations were made for making the occasion attractive to all, and, at the hour set for the commencement of the ceremonies, an immense concourse of ladies and gentlemen had assembled. The officiating clergyman, who married the couple, was Rev. Alfred Eddy, father of the bride. The bridal procession marched into the church headed by four bridesmaids and groomsmen. The bridesmaids were Misses Kitty Eddy, Cora Eddy, Myra Cleaver, and Annie Fell; the groomsmen were C. E. Dickenson, W. A. Bond, F. W. Cleaver, and H. B. Goodwin; ushers, J. S. Boyville, James Springer, W. R. Root, and W. H. Cleaver.

The bridal presents were both numerous and magnificent, embracing a set of pearl jewelry from the groom, a gold watch and chain from the groom's father, besides a large number of other presents from friends of both parties. The pair left Chicago last night for Europe, via the Michigan Central Road.

TOKIO GENERAL OFFERS TROOPS TO BREAK STRIKE

[By Special Cable.]

TOKIO, May 1.—In view of what he describes as a crisis, the commander of the Tokio garrison offers to use soldiers to man the street car system. The offer has not yet been accepted.

Public opinion and the press is against the strikers due to the recent "go slow" methods of the last several weeks which inconvenienced the public.

Also a manifesto just has been issued wherein the strikers declare they are not slaves of the Tokio public and are prepared to fight the public, if necessary. There have been a few minor clashes between strikers and police.

There has been no attempt to interfere with the emergency schedule. Taxis and rickshaws have doubled and trebled rates, reaping fortunes.

Held as Slayer, Says Accident Caused Death

Louisville, Ky., May 2.—Bernard H. Larmon, 18 years old, was arrested at Bowling Green, Ky., yesterday. He is wanted at Tallahassee, Fla., on a charge of the murder of Ralph Rushing, a taxicab driver, on April 22.

Larmon, son of John H. Larmon, a wealthy stock raiser of Bowling Green, is said to have told the police that he and his 16 year old bride of a month were riding in a taxicab driven by Rushing when a pistol with which Larmon was tampering was accidentally discharged, killing the chauffeur.

GRIP OF REDS ON FRENCH LABOR BEGINS TO SLIP

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920.]

PARIS, May 2.—While it is rather early to make definite statements, it appears radical leaders of French labor are due for a crushing defeat in their new effort to force nationalization of railroads and mines. Obedience to the widespread strike orders is only partial. The whole hope of the extremists is to tie up the nation so the government will have to give way. They are not succeeding in doing that.

The Confederation Generale du Travail, its hand forced by radicals, called a general strike of miners, sailors, dockers, to begin tomorrow morning. However, instead of a general cessation of work on railroads, 70 per cent service was maintained yesterday and today the situation is still better, every hour seeing men coming back.

Railroad Strike Unpopular.

The political strike of railroad men is intensely unpopular—first, because railroad men have received so many increases in pay that they do not even incorporate money matters in their strike demands, and, second, because France has no desire to have its government policies dictated by men who openly espouse Russian bolshevism.

The government is confident of the failure of the strike move.

Work and Produce,—Millerand.

"To cure the evils of war, France, victorious and pacific, needs to work and to produce," Premier Millerand said today. "She can neither work nor produce if normal functioning of transports does not supply regularly the raw materials and coal.

"Such is the hour which has been chosen to ask workers of railroads, of mines, and of ports to fold their arms, and thus increases the crisis of the high cost of living, of which the workers themselves are first victims. And for what motive? No union claims are advanced.

"Beneath these appeals to strike one finds only the desire to agitate the country and to prepare revolutionary movements. Public opinion is clearly hostile to this agitation and to these threats. The public wishes to work in peace. It appeals to the good sense of workers to disregard these criminal agitations."

[Walinger Photo.]

Chesley R. Perry of Chicago, secretary of the International Association of Rotary clubs, has left for England to attend the convention of the British clubs at Harrogate, May 12 to 14. He is one of a delegation of three, the others being Russell F. Greiner of Kansas City and the Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon of Winnipeg. The delegation will sail from New York May 4.

One of the questions to be presented at the conference is the creation in each country of a national division, with an international board of representatives of each divison.

Extension of Rotary clubs in Asia also is to be considered. After the British convention the delegation will assist in the institution of a Rotary club in Paris.

GIRL AND MAN WOUNDED; PAIR WITH THEM HELD

Conflicting Stories Told About Shooting.

Miss Loretta Weinberg, a cabaret singer, is in the German Deaconess hospital. Physicians say she may die. She was shot last night while in the company of another girl and two young men.

John J. Cronin of 447 West Garfield avenue, also is in the hospital, shot through both hands. Cronin is said to have been attentive to Miss Weinberg.

Hazel Johnson, a switchboard operator employed by the Atlas Taxicab company, and William Finley of 4146 Wentworth avenue were arrested and locked up in the Fiftieth street police station.

The shooting took place at 4412 Calumet avenue. The Johnson girl gave the name of Dorothy Paulette when she was taken by the police, but later changed it and then gave an "accident" version to the affair.

Police Are Mystified.

The police admitted they were mystified about the affair. Several stories were told before the one which the police believe may contain some truth. This was the story finally told by Finley.

"We went to call on the girls about 8 o'clock," he said. "We were going to take them out. Hazel was dressing, and Cronin and Loretta were siting on the couch. Cronin had his arms around Loretta's waist, and his hands were locked.

"Hazel found a revolver in the dresser drawer and started fooling with it. Then she tossed it to me.

Didn't Think It Loaded.

"I didn't think it was loaded, and I pulled the trigger. The shot wounded both of them. There was only one shot."

Miss Weinberg was wounded in the back, the bullet coming out the left side. Cronin was shot through the palm of the left hand and the bullet removed the tip of the second finger on his other hand.

The fact that one of the girls had given a fictitious name and that she had told the men she and Loretta knew "two handsome sailors" led the police to believe there might be more to the shooting than has been told.

JAPANESE ENTER SOUTH AMERICA ON VAST SCALE?

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—According to advices received here, some Argentine newspapers have recently been calling attention to what they regard as indications that the Japanese are preparing for an extensive colonization program in South America as well as seeking a larger market for Japanese goods on that continent. The matter, it is stated, has attracted considerable attention in diplomatic and commercial circles at Buenos Aires.

It is pointed out in the advices that the treaty made by Japan with Paraguay gives to the former favored nations privileges including the right of colonization.

Discussing this treaty, Euzbio Ayala, finance minister of Paraguay, is quoted as saying that one of the objects of Japan was to provide for colonization in Paraguay. He added, according to the advices, that Paraguay, which is a country the size of California, with only 1,000,000 inhabitants and excellent opportunity for agricultural development, would welcome the Japanese.

It is now reported that a similar treaty is being negotiated with Uruguay, the advices say.

In furtherance of the supposed colonization plan in South America, Japanese capitalists are reported to have acquired enormous tracts of agricultural lands in northern Peru and in Bolivia.

MOVIE AUDIENCE SEES REAL LIFE DRAMA ENACTED

"Tya, ta, ta," he played, achieving a high Z sharp with consummate ease.

Detective Sergeants Wild, Carlyle, Geary and Gahan walked down the aisle and collared him. The high Z sharp swooped down instanter to a low A flat. It was almost saxophonic in its descent.

"We want you, Jazzbo James," hissed the dicks. They brought him in with their other prisoners—John Dell, Ira Goldman, Isaac Silverman, Harry Henderson, and William Prozilla, cashier and bookkeeper for the Phoenix and Vendome theaters.

All of these men were named by Ben Holland of 29 East Thirty-first street as the "fences" through whom he disposed of $4,000 worth of cloth which had mysteriously disappeared from the suit manufacturing firm of Gunkel-Novy Co.

For six months this place had been repeatedly robbed, and operatives of the Pinkerton and Burns agencies had worked on the case in vain. But early Saturday morning the mystery was cleared when the detectives observed Ben's ebony person alighting from a street car with suit case in hand. Inspection of the latter disclosed three pieces of suitings.

SPENDING THE CORSET DOLLAR

The only way you can make your dollar of today worth one hundred cents is to spend it wisely. You are pretty certain to pay a good price for whatever clothes you buy; be certain what you buy is what you want; that what you buy fits you mentally as well as physically so it will not be wastefully discarded before it has given full wearing service; that what you buy is of such quality that its wearing service alone will justify the expenditure.

The secret of "getting your money's worth" lies in the elimination of buying mistakes. Particularly is this true of corsets where the element of health and comfort is of equal importance with the always-absorbing subject of appearance. The corset you discard after a few uncomfortable wearings or the corset you continue to wear at the expense of your appearance and peace of mind, is the corset you cannot afford.

The value of the corset you buy today is not in the number of dollars you pay for it, but in the number of days it will wear beyond the life of the average corset and continue to give you the joy of possession it gave the first day you put it on.

Gossard Front-Lacing Corsets are produced with the fullest appreciation of these facts—each corset produced is a masterpiece. Certainly nothing short of conspicuous superiority can account for the over-whelming and ever-increasing vogue for these original front-lacing corsets. Women have found in them the complete expression of true corset economy.

You can buy every Gossard Corset with the assurance that it will render the unequalled service every wearer of a Gossard has a right to expect. The models designed for your individual needs will give you that style that only a Gossard can give—the perfect front and perfect back that others have tried in vain to imitate; an all-day comfort that can only result from a faultlessly fitting garment; an assurance of healthful support that is priceless to every thoughtful woman; and a wearing service that alone is worth the price you pay.

are priced within the reach of every woman and every Gossard is worth every cent you pay for it. You will find Gossards at those stores in Chicago you like best; those stores that safeguard their prestige by offering only merchandise of unquestionably superior quality. Every corsetiere handling Gossard Corsets takes pride in selling them and will take a personal interest in your satisfaction. For your further convenience, we maintain two Gossard Retail Stores in Chicago; one at 37 South State Street and one at 64 East Madison Street.

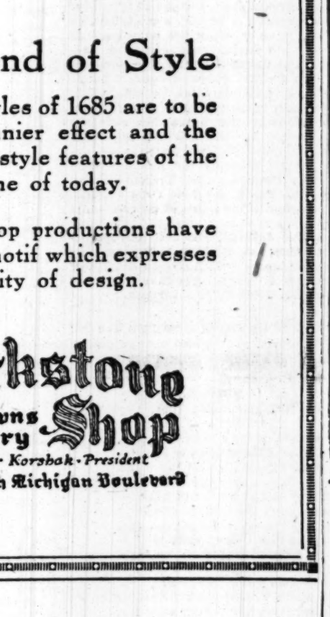
"Rosemary" dresses of modish silks, $55

Introducing new "Rosemary" modes in silks refreshingly novel in weave and color blendings—modes designed with defference to individuality and distinction, and in the spirit of the "new economy"—for $55 is extremely low.

As you may know, the "Rosemary" organization concentrates its resources on the production of but a few styles—with resultant important economies in cost of material and making. These economies are here reflected in a retail price that you will reckon extremely moderate in comparison with the usual offerings of the day.

Frock shop, fourth floor.



Any of the six enchanting "Rosemary" models portrayed in the sketch is of the sort you will enjoy and take pride in the whole summer through.

Every "Rosemary" model in this group delightfully interprets the "thought of youth" throughout the entire range of sizes.

These "Rosemary" dresses are those advertised in the May "Harper's" and "Vogue." In all sizes—14 to 18 years and 34 to 44 bust.

FOR PEACE.

According to dispatches from Warsaw, the Polish army advancing against the bolshevik army in southern Ukrainia defeated the latter last week in a pitched battle. Since this offensive began, it is claimed, 15,000 men have been captured, 60 cannon, hundreds of machine guns, and 75 locomotives. On the Pripet river a sharp action took place resulting in the sinking of two Red monitors and the capture of four others with forty other craft.

This is not comic opera warfare. It is war on a very considerable scale. It is war in a region which for over five years has been the theater of almost constant fighting. Some of the most sanguinary engagements of the world war took place in the now celebrated Pripet marshes, and the whole region has been a scene of bloodshed and devastation repeated and persistent.

It would seem that humanity in this part of the world should be exhausted. Yet it fights on. Polish nationalism, backed by its allies of western Europe, which uses it as a barrier to bolshevism, struggles forward to new conquests. The Red realm of Lenin and Trotzky expands and contracts, and a people who left the trenches by the thousands, when the foe was Prussian militarism, has been pouring out its blood under the Red banner.

The situation is deplorable from the standpoint of humanity and from that of the welfare of western peoples. The western world needs peace as it never needed it before. It needs a restoration of peaceful labor in the Polish mines and in the Russian farm lands. Yet the farm lands are plowed only by shell fire, and the labor which should be rebuilding industrial Poland pulls the lanyard and drives the bayonet home.

We do not think this is the will of the peoples. It is the will of their rulers, and we may observe once more "with how little wisdom mankind is governed." Poland and Ukrainia and Russia are neighbors, and strife among neighbors is a folly few issues between them can justify. The larger interests of western civilization are at stake, likewise the interests which peace, coöperation, mutual aid, mutual confidence alone can subserve. Yet Europe's immemorial rancors and selfish particular ambitions rule the conduct and the policies of statesmen and the emotions of the bleeding peoples.

What a commentary on the stubborn egoism of men! Is there no way out save by way of triumphant force and embittered submission—a way out which is a delusion, a way out which is but a way back into the morass?

Certainly we in America, a nation made up of emigrants who willed to leave the European conflict, ought to consider well the part it is wise to play in such a drama. Certainly we can exercise, if we are clear headed and determined, a powerful and beneficent influence upon it, for our moral and material resources are unmatched and still largely within our own control. But we ourselves are confused and dubious. We are still technically at war with what remains of the central powers. That strange fact ties our hands. While it lasts we cannot act as our interest and the world's interest require us to act.

How long are we to occupy this ridiculous and self-stultifying position? When shall we make formal peace, clarify our ideas of our responsibilities, take up vigorously and definitely the task our free intelligence points out for us?

YELLOW MEN SHOULD SLEEP.

Frazier Hunt, THE TRIBUNE correspondent writing from Harbin, finds the Japanese pushing along the Chinese railways and taking possession from the Chinese. This means taking over the resources of the country. Mr. Hunt voices the apprehension of the white. The yellow man is on the move and yellow men on the move have made trouble for whites.

Probably the white fear of Asia, which is not a tenth as well justified by experience as the yellow fear of the whites, is traditional and unescapable. It is an instinct. The yellow races ought to sleep. If they awake, their fecundity and their fatalism will be terrors to the white. The instinctive fear may be ingrained, although the Japanese are virtually the only Asiatics who have not been doing just about what they were told to do by white breeds for generations.

We might as well face the probability that the Japanese are going somewhere. Just now they are going west. There was a time when they were coming east, to our embarrassment. They will follow the line of least resistance if, all things considered, that line brings them what they need at the least expense.

THROW AWAY YOUR HORN AND GET A HOE.

Dudley Grant Hays, supervisor of school extension work, and the Association of Commerce garden committee have arranged to coöperate in assisting school children to plant 120,000 gardens in Chicago. These gardens, it is estimated presumably on the basis of war garden production, will give an average yield of $10 worth of vegetables. That will mean a $1,250,000 reduction in the high cost of living for city residents who help with these gardens.

If the school children can do that much, individuals should be able to equal the showing. The gain for the office man, and even for the housewife, will be double. Pleasant exercise in the open air, an increase in useful knowledge, and the delight of seeing a tiny seed turn into a succulent radish, will be even more valuable than $10 worth of garden sass.

We are warned that the late spring and lack of labor will reduce farm production this year. That means higher prices. Home gardens will tend to counteract that menace. The need of production is equal to that of war days, although the basis of that need has changed. Dig.

THE WORLD'S BEST INVESTMENT.

A new low record of 84.50 for the second 4¼ Liberty bonds again calls attention to these securities as the world's best investment. At this price these bonds, maturing in 1942, will yield 5.45 per cent. For a shorter term investment, Victory 4¾s, maturing in 1923, will yield close to 6 per cent.

Education of investors throughout the nation to the value and advantages of these securities at this price will do much toward improving the market and bringing the price of the bonds quickly upward. Bankers report an amazing ignorance of the real value of the bonds. A typical case is that of a woman who applied for the purchase of a sound local building bond. She objected to purchasing the Liberty paper because it had gone so low she feared it could not come back. The banker with whom she negotiated explained that while the building bond was good, it could not be as good as the other, because if such a revolution as to prevent the government redeeming its pledges in full should occur it would mean chaos and total collapse for every industrial and utility activity in the nation.

An opportunity such as they may never see again is open to conservative investors. It is time they began to grasp it.

MAD DOGS AND CHILDREN.

"Get me right," said Frank Zagar after startling Judge Sabath's courtroom by the confession of two murders. "I'm all O. K. in the upstairs. The only one who's crazy is the guy that's trying to get me off on an insanity plea."

There is a remarkably sane indictment of society by a murderer who is defended as insane. He explained that he had killed one man "because he didn't stick up his hands quick enough." When asked why he had killed the other, he said, "I just thought I might as well kill him." In each case, the killing was incidental to robbery. Zagar was sane enough to know the value of money and to understand how to get it by force.

In neither case did our modern society, which defends the murderer, provide any defense for the murderer's victims or their dependents. Zagar, by his own bragging confession, shows he would kill as willingly as he would steal. Thus murder becomes a pastime.

Men of such character have the same effect in a community that a mad dog does in a school yard. The dog not only maims and kills the children, but he makes other dogs mad, and they in turn kill. Society protects the children from a continuation of such dangers by killing the dog. It does not lock the dog up with others and later turn them all out to invade the school yard again. No more should it allow a murderer of the type of Zagar to infect fellow criminals with his ideas of murder as a pastime, and turn them out to prey upon the community.

TOUCHING A VITAL SPOT.

News of the restriction of bank loans for building purposes has a direct bearing upon the welfare of every resident of Chicago. All are touched in a vital spot—the pocketbook.

Restriction of loans means restriction of building. This is evidenced by the building commissioner's records, which show a 30 per cent decrease in construction in April. Restriction of building means a continuation of high rents, if not a further increase. It means a decrease in jobs at high wages for the men employed in building trades. It means restriction in the growth of the city.

Banks deny they are stopping building loans, but they admit they are limiting them because of the tightness of money and the availability of good investments at higher rates. Their reasons are sound, and probably nothing can be done about it, but the situation offers a lesson which can be learned with eventual profit.

It shows the mutual dependence of labor and capital upon each other. Without capital to finance a building, carpenters and bricklayers cannot get jobs. Without buildings, other workers cannot get homes. Without the coöperation of both, neither the city nor the individual can prosper. It is necessary that both prosper, and both can prosper by recognizing this interdependence and taking it into first consideration in their business dealings.

Editorial of the Day

PLUG UP THE PAROLE HOLE.

[Illinois State Register.]

Many of the most vicious crimes recorded in Chicago recently have been perpetrated by paroled prisoners. This inspires THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE to inveigh against the present parole system, and justly so. THE TRIBUNE quotes the March grand jury as saying in its return:

> Of the number of true bills returned a large number of the indicted have been paroled several times, and the grand jury is strongly of the opinion that crime can be lessened to a great extent if the parole board did not grant more than one parole to any one person, and in no case grant a parole to a person who had previously served a sentence in Joliet, Pontiac, Chester, or any other reformatory in the United States.

It's a startling situation. There's something rotten somewhere. This we know to be true—when you lock a desperate criminal in prison he looks around his cell for two avenues of escape: (a) an insecure window or door; (b) the parole system. If he has influential friends he begins prying there. It has been known to work.

We join THE TRIBUNE in demanding that these avenues of escape be plugged up. What's the use putting steel bars in windows and doors if the parole system is to remain open as an avenue of escape?

Should we parole deserving first offenders? Yes, but to parole a criminal with a "record" is worse than an outrage.

ILLINOIS.

[Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

Of national interest is Mayor Thompson's achievement in getting complete personal control of the dominant party in Chicago. It makes him a party leader with whom terms must be made by any one proposing to negotiate with Illinois Republicanism. That it makes him, however, even a potential possibility in the national convention cannot be believed. His record on issues pertaining to the war is such that a party hoping to win the presidency will not handicap itself with such a burden.

There is credit enough for all. Lowden gets the delegates. Wood proves he can go into an enemy state and capture its metropolis. Thompson shines with new effulgence at the only game for which he is fitted—the ward political game. Johnson is the real victor.

More German Cunning.

(Ernest Newman in the Manchester Guardian.)

The well-known diabolical cunning of the "Hun" is shown in nothing more clearly than in his compelling us to go to him even for our Holy Week music. What have our composers been doing to allow what should have been a flourishing native industry to pass out of their hands? Why could not one of them have foreseen, instead of leaving it to Wagner, the necessity of writing some Good Friday Music? It is true it might not have been as fine as Wagner's; but patriotism might have compelled us to listen to it. It is one of the ironies of our situation that for our religious concert music on Good Friday we have to go to a German opera! And so overpowering is the religious feeling engendered in some minds by that opera that even the sinners in it become for the moment sanctified. I can understand most of the selections at the Queen's Hall concert creating the genuine Good Friday spirit—the Prelude, the Transformation Music and the Grail Scene, the Good Friday Music, and so on. But what in the name of all the saints are the Flower Maidens doing in that galley? They are very attractive damsels, and they have some lovely music to sing; but I cannot say I get any more specifically religious emotion from seeing or hearing them than I do from the Sixteen Palace Girls or one of Mr. John Tiller's troupes.

THE PRODIGAL.

Sweet Love, when I renounced thee, thou didst smile,
Put up thine arrows, turned from me away,
Saying, "Adieu; we'll meet another day,"
Knowing full well I loved thee all the while.
Far have I gone, full many a weary mile.
Finding December in the month of May,
Hearing no song upon the budded spray;
Without thee, holding earth a dungeon vile.
Behold! my soul is in a tumult dire,
For in my heart a darkness more than night
Doth rule, darkness revealing not a star.
Relent, relent and fill me with thy fire,
Yea, flood the world with new-awakened light;
Home am I come from wandering very far.

ONE CAN MANAGE THE RECEIVING.

[From the Lewistown, Mont., Democrat-Herald.]

Miss Woods Receiving—Miss Grace Woods is recovering nicely from the effects of severe burns sustained when she fell into a boiler of hot water last Saturday. A lid on which she was sitting slipped and let her into the water.

THE demonstration which broke up Laurette Taylor's performance in London recalls an earlier riot, which Edmund Gosse describes in his essay on Henry James:

"Henry James," he says, "was positively stormridden with emotion before the fatal night, and full of fantastic plans. I recall that one of them was that he should hide in the bar of a little public-house down an alley close to the theater, whither I should slip forth at the end of the second act and report 'how it was going.' This was not carried out, and fortunately Henry James resisted the temptation of being present in the theater during the performance. All seemed to be going fairly well until the close. When Henry James appeared and was called before the curtain only to be subjected—to our unspeakable horror and shame—to a storm of hoots and jeers and catcalls from the gallery, answered by loud and sustained applause from the stalls, the whole producing an effect of hell broke loose, in the midst of which the author, white as chalk, bowed and spread forth deprecating hands and finally vanished. It was said at the time, and confirmed later, that this horrible performance was not intended to humiliate Henry James, but was the result of a cabal against George Alexander."

VEGETABLES, HEALTH, GROWTH.

VEGETABLES are eaten in part for the proteins, starches, and fats they contain, but also in considerable part for their minerals and vitamines. There are animals which get most of their growth principle from grass and green leaves. They start off on mother's milk, but they speedily begin to graze, and long before growth has been attained they have quit milk entirely and are growing on a diet of grass and leaves.

There are some races, such as the Japanese, who get practically no milk except human milk and who do most of their growing on a basis of greens.

To prevent scurvy the diet must contain some fresh juices, and the juices of certain fruits and vegetables are without equals.

To prevent beriberi the bran of grains is useful.

In the process of preparation of vegetables for the table we remove some of the properties which make vegetables desirable. Uncooked vegetables are better anti-scorbutics than cooked ones. Unsifted, unpolished grains are better anti-beriberi agents than better prepared ones.

In the process of cooking turnips, beets, cabbage, all sorts of greens, a good part of the minerals and some of the fat protein and starch are dissolved out of vegetables by the liquor or cooking water. A cook who pours the cooking water from vegetables and makes it into soups is wise, just as the children who drank "pot licker" were far in advance of the research students in foods.

Ordinarily people want to get all the values possible out of foods, since they are little enough and expensive enough at best. Diabetics, on the other hand, need to go through the motions of eating, to fill their stomachs as full as possible with foods and at the same time take as little nourishment, especially in the way of starch and sugar, as possible.

For that reason vegetables containing a low percentage of starch are better than grains containing much starch. Those vegetables which contain too much starch can be used after being boiled two or three times. Three boilings will remove all the starch from some vegetables but not from others.

Cammidge found that three boilings would remove all the starch from carrots, but not from cabbage. Beets containing 12 per cent starch and sugar after three boilings contained less than cabbage.

Among the vegetables giving up their starch readily on boiling were celery, rhubarb, spinach, turnips, carrots, and beets. Cabbage was at the other end of the list. In view of the decrease in palatability of overcooked vegetables, Cammidge experimented with soaking in warm water. He soaked vegetables in water at 140 degrees, changing the water every fifteen minutes. Beets were starch-free in one hour; parsnips, one hour; carrots, one and one-half hours; eggplant, two hours; pineapple, three and one-half hours.

PROBLEM OF CONDUCT.

A Reader writes: "On reading the interesting campaigns now going on, from swatting flies to swatting diseases in foreign ports, one is really filled with enthusiasm, and as long as the vogue lasts, why not combat the horrible habit that the general public has of breathing in one another's face, either when in surface lines or elevated road cars, and wage a strenuous campaign against that evil? Would it not be well to have passengers avoid facing each other, and instead face in one direction?"

REPLY.

The cigarmakers are said to have decreased the amount of contagion among their employes by having them all face in the same direction—just the expedient you propose for street cars. But how could the suggestion be carried out?

PROBABLY SCARLET FEVER.

E. J. G. writes: "My 3 year old daughter was very sick for three days and had a high temperature. We were on an island and so situated we could not obtain medical aid, but did the best we could in caring for her. She gained rapidly, but could not walk steadily for a week afterward and the skin peeled off all over her, even her ears and eyelids. Was it scarlet fever? She is still losing the skin from the soles of her feet, the last place to peel. Does one pass through a period of desquamation like this with any other disease? When is scarlet fever most contagious? Is it liable to leave any after effects?"

REPLY.

It is probable the child had scarlet fever. Other possibilities are remote. There is some tendency to peel after measles, typhoid, rheumatism, and other severe infections. But the tendency is not great. Scarlet fever is most contagious at the onset. It remains contagious so long as there are discharges from the nose or ears or the tonsils are enlarged. The probability is that the child will be all right, but after scarlet fever it is wise to have the heart examined and the urine analyzed.

MILK POISON FOR HIM.

Mrs. D. M. B. writes: "I have a 22 months old baby who can eat almost anything, but cannot digest cows' milk. The milk sours on his stomach and comes up in one large lump. I do not like to give him coffee or tea, but what else can I do? I have been giving him olive oil as a tonic. Can you prescribe anything that might help him? He appears to be well and happy."

REPLY.

There are children who are poisoned by cows' milk. Some of these can drink cows' milk which has been thoroughly boiled and from which the scum and tough pellicle has then been removed. Your baby is thriving without milk. Do not give tea or coffee. Neither is a substitute for milk. Try milk powder. Give butter on bread, and cereals. Give him spinach and other green vegetables. He can thrive and grow on green vegetables, cereals and butter provided he gets enough of them.

THE FRIEND OF THE SOLDIER

COMPENSATION AND THE BONUS.

Chicago, April 30.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—On Nov. 26, 1919, I was discharged from army hospital and am now receiving $8 per month for compensation. Some time ago I noted in your paper that a bill of some kind was passed granting disabled men additional pay. Will I be entitled to something more according to this bill?

Also, will the proposed bonus now before congress include men that were in the service prior to our declaration of war, say 1916? I thank you. C. E. L.

You probably are entitled to more compensation under the Sweet bill, which became a law Dec. 24, 1919. You should take the matter up with the compensation section of the war risk insurance bureau in Washington, D. C. Nothing definite can be said now about the army bonus. The ex-service men will have to be patient until the bill passes (if it does pass), when all the provisions of the bill will be made known.

BONUS BILL REPORTS.

Chicago, April 29.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I have heard that all regular army men, that is, those who enlisted prior to the war and served through the war, are going to be excluded from the bonus there is so much talk about. Can you tell me if that is true or not? H. H.

If you have been watching reports of the bonus bill carefully, you will have noticed that they vary almost daily. It is impossible now to say who will and who will not be entitled to bonus if the bill is passed.

NEW YORK BONUS.

Kindly advise me of the following: Did New York state grant a bonus to its ex-service men? And, if so, how much? Am I entitled to same now, though I am not living there now? I lived there since 1911 and became a citizen and entered the service in that state. And how can I go about it in order to get it? Thanking you heartily. L. L. DURACK.

New York has just recently passed a bonus bill. From facts stated in your letter we should judge that you are entitled to the bonus. Send for the official application blanks to the adjutant general's office, bonus section, Albany, New York.

W. A. B., Mount Pulaski, Ill.—See reply to above.

LOST DISCHARGE.

Another discharge has been lost. It belongs to Private William Kantor, late of Company H, 131st infantry, 33d division, A. E. F. Finder please return to private Kantor at 1325 West Eighteenth street, Chicago.

INSURANCE NONATTACHABLE.

Chicago, April 30.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—Can any one collect an old debt from the insurance benefit installments received from the war risk insurance? (The insurance is that of a soldier who died in action.) Or is such exempt from collection? A. H.

You cannot levy on government insurance for the collection of any debt.

EX-SERVICE MEN!

Friend of the Soldier.—Although I realize that many discharged soldiers who were raised on farms do not wish to return to farms, yet there must be some who have not deserted the land. I have new land which I want farmed. My tracts were Indian allotments purchased by me shortly before the war. The tracts are under Indian department ditches. I offer free use of the land for two seasons and will pay for putting in land cultivation; soil and climate good; altitude 4,777 to 6,000; hay, grain, oats, cattle and sheep, dairying; also fruit, excellent potatoes, good turkey and hog country. Land has been idle, as it is sixty miles from a railroad, but prospects of one soon to be built. Government trucks bring mail and parcel post regularly.

STEPHEN ABBOT,
Captain U. S. Army, Retired.

WISHES TO CANCEL INSURANCE.

Chicago, April 28.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I converted my insurance to twenty year endowment insurance and paid three quarterly premiums amounting to $30.52. I wish now to drop it altogether. Will they cancel the insurance and return the above amount to me? S. H. V.

It is permissible for you to cancel your insurance, of course, but about the refund we could not say. The insurance bureau would have to decide your case. We advise that you call at the local war risk insurance office, 1307 Stock Exchange building, or the insurance section of the central war department, 230 East Ohio street.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU CONTINUES

A lease for another season has been taken by the free employment bureau conducted by the Knights of Columbus War Activities at 154 West Randolph street, and the work will be continued as long as needed. Since the closing of the United States army bureau for returned soldiers, sailors, and marines, the Knights of Columbus bureau has placed in positions from 600 to 1,000 former service men every week. Last week 987 men were placed in jobs.

The free evening vocational schools for ex-service men conducted by the K. of C. will start their second term tonight at De Paul university, 1010 Webster avenue; St. Ignatius' college, Roosevelt road and May street, and Old South Division High school, Twenty-sixth street and Wabash avenue.

All ex-service men are invited to enroll. Full information is given out at 155 North Clark street.

LOST DISCHARGE BUTTON.

Mackinaw, Ill., April 27.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—I am writing to learn where I can get a war button for my husband. He lost his some time ago. I also should like to know about his citation. He was with the 33d division. MRS. G. W.

Only one Victory button is issued on a discharge. He will have to purchase another.

We do not understand about his citation, but it would be recorded in the adjutant general's office, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C. Direct such inquiry to him.

H. McB., Chicago.—See above reply.

No attention will be given to anonymous letters. To insure a personal reply inclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

LEGION NOTES

Lake View post 186 will hold a special meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Chateau building to finish plans for the membership campaign. The auxiliary entertainment has been postponed to May 17.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The 7th Division club will meet tonight at the Khaki and Blue club. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock; smoker and entertainment later.

MOTOR LORE.

Chicago, April 29.—[To the Friend of the People.]—The "Friend of the People" in today's TRIBUNE answers an inquiry by "Eng. S." in reference to the right of way of fire department vehicles on the public streets. In connection therewith I beg to call your attention to the following portion of section 33 of the Motor Vehicle Law of Illinois in force Jan. 1, 1920:

"All vehicles traveling upon public highways shall give the right of way to other vehicles approaching along intersecting highway from the right, and shall have the right of way over those approaching from the left; provided, however, that police vehicles, fire departments, vehicles transporting United States mail, and ambulances shall have the right of way over other vehicles."

EDWARD J. PADDEN, Chief Clerk.

ALLEY TO BE PAVED.

Chicago, May 1.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Please tell me when the alley south of Madison, between Whipple and Albany avenue, is to be paved. A. L.

We have started a proceeding for paving the alley between Madison street, Colorado avenue, Whipple street and Albany avenue, but it is hardly likely that we shall be in a position to pave the alley this year.

As soon as we are ready to hold the public hearing the property owners will be notified.

WANNA FIGHT?

Chicago, May 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Can restaurant proprietors be prosecuted for marking cost prices on the bill of fare and then charging more at the cashier's desk? Many are doing this. By what method could they be prosecuted? READER.

The more obvious remedy would be to refuse to pay more than the price at which you bought.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

NO PROBATE.

Chicago, May 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Father and mother both died recently, leaving some property but no will. We are the only two heirs living and both of age. We would like to dispose of property and ask your kind advice.

1. Must property be probated?
2. How long will it take to go through court?
3. Can we dispose of it without being probated? A. B. H.

1. Not unless the purchaser insists.
2. About a year.
3. Yes, if you can find a purchaser who is satisfied.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

SMALL JOB FOR NOTARY.

Chicago, May 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My mother sold our farm to my married brother and through the farm loan has paid the rest of the members of the family their share of inheritance of that property. He sent me down a quitclaim deed, to be signed and returned. Does this deed have to be signed in the presence of a notary public? J. F.

It should be acknowledged in the presence of a notary.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

LONG NIGHTS.

Chicago, May 1.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—At a Chicago hospital a night nurse is required to serve twelve hours a night, seven nights in the week, for twenty-eight days in succession, with no relief through the night and no time off through the night and no time off through the period. Is this legal in the state of Illinois? Is not ten hours a legal day or night? M. M.

On the facts stated we would say it is not legal. Report to the state factory inspector.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

As but limited space can be given letters in this department, writers must confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Unless they give their full names and addresses, their letters will not be considered. No manuscript will be returned unless the writer sends postage for that purpose.

SWITCHMAN'S VIEW OF STRIKE.

Chicago, April 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—We are certain that no one disputes the right of a workman to quit his job at any time he sees fit, and we also, on our part, understand and do not underestimate our duty and obligations to the public. In the discharge of that obligation we have resorted to the present course only after having exhausted every other known method to obtain a measure of simple justice—a living wage.

We obtained the promise of the chief executive of the nation that he (speaking in behalf of the government) would grant the increases asked if at the end of a reasonable length of time he was unable to bring down the H. C. of L. in proportion to the wage advances asked.

We agreed to the president's plan, and patiently waited for three long months, but no decline in prices made itself evident. So we again renewed our demands for a living wage, and were asked to grant a little more time. We again agreed to wait, and at the end of two more months, with the cost of living continuing to mount skyward, once again we pressed our demands, and having discharged our obligation to the public in every way possible, we this time gave a thirty day notice of the abrogation of the existing contracts, and this time were notified, point blank, by the director general, that no increases could be granted.

Then, and not until then, did we call upon our brotherhoods to act. Imagine our surprise then when the days began to slip by with no action taken by the brotherhoods, but never forgetting to assess their membership, and eventually it began to dawn upon us that the brotherhoods had no intention of pushing the matter further.

It was then that we determined that we would assert our freedom.

The public has been considered. No damage has been done; no radical acts of any kind have been committed. Every effort to effect a peaceful settlement has been tried without avail.

What other course could we individually pursue? HARRY S. DE HAVEN.

REMINDING US OF COOLIDGE.

Chicago, April 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—THE TRIBUNE seems to be so much in favor of Lowden that it has printed very little about anybody else. For instance, what has it said about Calvin Coolidge? Simply this, that when Lowden was named at some Illinois publishers' convention, Coolidge was mentioned as his running mate for the vice presidency. But now that Coolidge seems to have gained favor enough of his own, they say nothing about him.

WALTER HENDRICKS.

A BONUS FOR INSULTS.

Galien, Mich., April 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I have been reading James F. Lawson's opinion of the bill pending for soldiers' bonus. He says he was a medical officer, had practiced eleven years before entering service; if so, and he has lost out in business, he must be some doctor. A golden hat cord and leather leggings usually give lieutenants a tight hat band.

Like E. J. Robe, I found the petty officers "insulting, overbearing, arrogant, incompetent upstarts."

I think the men who dug trenches and took the insults of the "fifteen minute" officers entitled to the bonus.

HARRY D. FOSTER.

FORECASTING A FARM LABOR UNION.

Chicago, April 30.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—The reason that men leave the farms is not so much for the "bright lights and pretty girls of the city" as the desire to escape the intolerable conditions under which they must work at present.

I suggest to you wise editors, if you are sincerely desirous of knowing the facts, to hire out to some farmer who will pay you "what you're worth." Then, being productive members of society, you will treat editors' pipe with the contempt it usually gets. Perhaps too, you will find that the reason the farm hand must put up with miserable conditions is owing to lack of organization on his part.

But as the farming industry develops, as it is developing, along the same lines as other industries, and the land gets more and more into the hands of the few, the agricultural worker will be in a position to organize industrially as his fellows of mine and mill are doing. It will then be but a matter of time until he will demand decent conditions and back his demands. A "400" DOBBY.

A PRIVATE'S CASH ACCOUNT.

Farmer City, Ill., April 29.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Actual figures of an enlisted man compared to the figures of Second Lieutenant G. L. H.:

Pay per month	$ 30.00
Total per year	$360.00
Allotment to wife [monthly]	15.00
Insurance [monthly]	6.80
Cash income per year	$ 96.60
Laundry [do it yourself].
Boots [didn't have any].
Expenses on leave home [couldn't get home].
Extras, amusements, etc. [pressed ourselves].
Total, hopelessly in debt.

How does it compare? Who needs the bonus? D. HOPPER.

THIS ONE CAME BY WIRE.

Boston, Mass., April 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—As delegate elect to Chicago convention from Massachusetts, hope delegates' rights will be protected. Last convention Congressman Gardner and myself excluded because hall filled with henchmen. Mayor Thompson promised to be good if convention came again. Know Chicago authorities will see fair treatment for delegates.

CHARLES L. BURRILL.

HONOR TO OUR HEROIC DEAD.

Chicago, April 30.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Your campaign for contributions toward decorating the graves of our heroic dead in allen climes is a lofty and ennobling one.

As a nation, we are prone to forget; but we must ever remember the services of our noble living and dead in the titanic struggle for the rights of men.

And we deserve to be branded as disloyal if we do not continue to remember—not only on Memorial day but every day—the services of those who reached the apex of human devotion.

PATRICK J. FOSTER.

Pastors Open Campaign with Pulpit Pleas.

The American Legion is going after recruits in the Chicago district this week. The Legion wants every man to join who served in the army, the navy, or the marine corps.

The ministers of the city started the Legion week yesterday, recruiting from the pulpits. Pretty girls and gold star mothers, and veterans of the world war will begin recruiting today on the streets, in office buildings, hotels, banks, stores and restaurants.

Each of the 171 posts in the district will make a campaign, some by telephone, some by letter, some by house to house canvass, some by opening service bureaus.

Dr. Stone Aids.

"Every young man who put on the national uniform," said the Rev. John Timothy Stone of the Fourth Presbyterian church, "should join the American Legion.

"They served their country well during the war, served with a united strength. They should serve their country just as well in times of peace, with the united strength of the Legion."

Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus declared that the United States needs the Legion now as it needed the army and the navy during the war; the greater the strength of the Legion the more secure the nation's welfare.

The Rev. R. A. White of the People's Liberal church, Sixty-fifth street and Stewart avenue, called the Legion "a great force of Americanism, for fostering the spirit of patriotism, and for building a sound mind in a sound body politic."

Asked to Decorate Homes.

Patriotic citizens have been asked by State Commander Milton J. Foreman to decorate their homes and offices with flags. Gov. Lowden has endorsed the movement by proclamation.

National Commander Franklin D'Olier is expected to arrive in Chicago today. He will address prominent business men at noon in the Chicago club, speaking on the relation of the bonus to present financial conditions. Col. Foreman will speak on the aims of the Legion during the afternoon at the Chicago Woman's club.

Commander and Mrs. D'Olier will be the guests of honor at a dinner in the Hotel La Salle this evening. There will be 160 Legion posts represented. Mr. D'Olier and Richard Henry Little will speak.

Among those who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. John Borden, Harold F. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Countiss, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hall McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sprague II., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. McKinlock.

A PINK ECLIPSE

How Shadow of the Earth Put Smoked Glasses on Man in the Moon.

There was an eclipse of the moon last night. Astronomers say it was a good one, and they learned a lot from it.

The moon, in her monthly journey around the sky, passed squarely through the shadow of the earth and was "totally obscured" for about an hour. While the moonlight was greatly weakened, there was no time when the whole outline could not be distinguished.

This eclipsed moon was in the earth's shadow when it rose and it had a pink and yellow glow. At 8:30 o'clock the moon reached the edge of the shadow. A brilliant strip appeared on her lower edge, which rapidly widened, and in an hour more the show was over. There will be no more eclipses of the moon visible here this year.

SCHURMAN SEES PERIL IN TALK OF U. S.-JAP WAR

[By Special Cable.]

TOKIO, May 1.—The Frank Vanderlip party is carrying Tokio by storm. Its members are the guests of elaborate functions twice daily, with receptions and entertainments every afternoon by the highest officials and prominent civilians.

They are holding morning conferences with leading Japanese.

"We may not accomplish the results we hoped for," Mr. Schurman said, "but, one thing sure, we are going after objects in the right way. It is inconceivable that Japan and America will fight over a misunderstanding now when European civilization has retrograded fifty years as a result of the war, and a Jap-American conflict would retard civilization a century. Literally, the hope of both east and west rests upon American-Japanese cooperation."

FRENCH WAR MINISTER ILL.

PARIS, May 2.—M. Lefevre, minister of war, is going to Vichy for rest and medical treatment. He is suffering from overwork. Premier Millerand will take over the portfolio of minister of war.

U. S. Red Cross Seeks to Find Holland's Need

[Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.]
[Copyright: 1920.]

THE HAGUE, May 2.—The committee of Netherlands chapter of the American Red Cross, of which the new American minister, William Phillips, is chairman, held a meeting at the American legation in order to decide what work is most urgently needed in Holland. The general opinion arrived at was that a home for American sailors would prove beneficial.

Art and Shoes

ANYONE can draw a picture and color it, but the man who does it best in his generation is acclaimed an artist. Anyone can shape leather over a wooden last and call it a shoe, but there have been only a few truly great shoemakers in America.

In 1853 Edwin Clapp opened a shoe factory devoted to the making of Better Shoes for Men than had ever before been made. For nearly seventy years this policy has been followed, with the result that Edwin Clapp Shoes are generally recognized as realizing the Highest Standard of Excellence.

EDWIN CLAPP OXFORDS FOR WOMEN are now on display in both Chicago stores. Women especially appreciate our Kangaroo Oxfords, giving all the comfort of kidskin combined with the wearing qualities of calfskin.

LYNE'S EYE ON PLAN TO RAISE PRICE OF BREAD

Investigation of plans of the master bakers to increase the price of one pound loaves of bread, now selling for 11 or 12 cents, to 13 or 14 cents, as a result of their agreement to pay their employés a wage of from $48 to $50 a week, is being undertaken by United States District Attorney Charles F. Clyne, it was learned last night. The one and one-half pound loaves, for which 15 cents is being charged, may be raised to 17 cents. The plan to increase the price to the consumer to make up for the bakery employés' increase is being considered by the Chicago Master Bakers' association and the Bakers' club.

Officials Called In.

Officials of the master bakers' organizations have been called in for a conference in Mr. Clyne's office today, and it is believed that the union officials will be examined tomorrow.

"I was notified to be in Mr. Clyne's office Monday morning," said Marshall J. Densby, president of the Chicago Master Bakers' association. "I haven't the slightest idea what he should want with me. The price to the consumer has not been fixed yet. We are just talking about it."

"If any violations of the Lever act or any other federal statute have occurred, there most certainly will be federal action," said Mr. Clyne last night. "All complaints will be fully investigated. It is a criminal offense for any one to interfere with the shipment or distribution of food supplies."

Sugar Prices Discussed.

Manufacturers of sugar products and the public's penchant for candy were declared to be greatly responsible for the present sugar shortage by Sol Westerfeld, president of the Chicago Retail Grocers' association, in a statement issued last night.

"Candy manufacturers can afford to pay almost any price for sugar," Mr. Westerfeld said. "All they have to do is to tack some more on to the price of their product and the public will pay. Public sentiment is never aroused against the high cost of candy.

"Why can't the government regulate the sugar purchases of candy manufacturers? That would help considerably in this emergency. I have yet to hear of the department of justice or the attorney general interfering with the candy business."

MINISTERING HANDS

[TRIBUNE Photos.]

The home nursing hospital, sponsored by the Chicago health department to train the women of the city to cope with epidemics, opens this morning. Yesterday afternoon Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, inspected the hospital and spoke to the 350 women who are starting the course.

The new hospital, at Fulton and Ada streets, will have a capacity of fifteen beds for the present. It is under the management of Miss M. Engels, with Dr. Minnie Jahp as chief of staff. Miss Margaret Jaik is one of the student nurses. As the need arises additional beds will be installed.

The nursing will be done by young women who have finished Dr. Robertson's three months' course, and they will be given an additional three months of intensive training. No charge is made to patients.

The course is open to all women. Enrollment for the class will continue all week, though it is desired that all who can should enter today or tomorrow. Classes will meet twice a week.

TOOTS CHICAGO AS CLOSEST TO CRIMELESS CITY

Chicago has fewer arrests for crimes than any other large city in the United States, and crime here is on the decrease, Judge William N. Gemmill of the Municipal court yesterday told the current events class of First Congregational church in Evanston.

Strict enforcement of prohibition laws is one important cause of the decrease of crime, he said.

"Cleveland and Boston have fewer serious crimes per capita than any other large cities of the United States," he stated, "and Chicago ranks third.

"We have heard there were more murders in Chicago last year than in the entire British Isles. The statistics may be true, but it should be understood that a death is not called a murder in England until some one has been convicted and sentenced. More than 36,000 coroner's inquests into violent deaths in the British Isles were held last year. Many would have been called murders in this country. There were 4,000 inquests here.

Held Up by 2 Near Police Station, Robbed of $1,885

Newell H. Huey, 629 Addison street, reported to the Town Hall police last night that two men had held him up about 100 feet from the station and robbed him of a diamond ring valued at $1,800, and $85. They overlooked $10,000 worth of his wife's diamonds in his inside pocket. He and Mrs. Huey had feared to leave the diamonds in the house while they were out. Huey is eastern representative of the Oregon Lumber company.

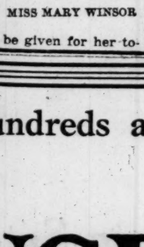
WOMEN WARN G. O. P. TO HURRY UP THAT VOTE

The Republican party is overlooking a big opportunity and taking a chance of incurring the resentment of 17,000,000 woman voters in the next presidential campaign, if the party leaders do not use all their power to bring about complete suffrage for women at once.



MISS MARY WINSOR

This is the opinion of Miss Mary Winsor of Philadelphia, member of the national advisory council of the National Woman's party, who has just arrived in Chicago after a tour of western states. She is a guest of Isloyd of Winnetka. A tea will be given for her today at the Marshall Field tearoom.

"What we are trying to do now," she said, "is to get support in the suffrage states, through political parties, in order to bring pressure to bear to get immediate ratification of the suffrage amendment. We have thirty-five states now and expect to have thirty-seven soon.

"The Republican party should bring full pressure to bear upon its leaders in Delaware. Suffrage there is being held back by a few short sighted men. The situation is arousing resentment among women everywhere. It is dangerous to dangle this in front of them and tell them they almost have it.

"It is possible the Democrats may give us the full suffrage. Things look favorable in Louisiana and North Carolina. In the latter state we have thirty-eight members of the legislature pledged. This is something for the Republicans to consider."

Woolen Mills Say They Won't Pay Bigger Wage

Providence, R. I., May 2.—[Special.]—A representative of one of the largest woolen concerns in New England said tonight that the officials of the American Woolen company had decided to shut down its mills in the event the textile workers present further demands to increase wages. If this action is taken by the American Woolen company, it is believed every mill in Rhode Island will follow suit.

CANADA MERGES COMPANIES FOR U. S. STEEL RIVAL

Montreal, May 2.—Consolidation of nine steel, coal and transportation companies of Canada into the British Steel corporation, with a capital of $500,000,000, was announced today by Col. W. Grant Morden.

He said it was the largest merger of its kind in the British empire, and second only to the United States Steel corporation.

Canada Iron, British Gold.

Col. Morden declared the consolidation will associate the iron and coal deposits of the Atlantic seaboard of the dominion with the steel making experiences and financial resources of Great Britain.

The capital stock of the corporation will be divided as follows: Seven per cent cumulative preferred, $50,000,000, of which $37,000,000 is to be issued; 8 per cent cumulative preferred, participating, $100,000,000, of which $25,000,000 is to be issued; 7 per cent. noncumulative preferred, $150,000,000, of which $68,000,000 is to be issued; common, $200,000,000, of which $77,000,000 is to be issued.

Corporations Consolidated.

Included in the consolidation are: Dominion Steel corporation and its subsidiaries; Nova Scotian Coal company, Ltd., and its subsidiaries; Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., and its subsidiaries; Canada Foundries and Forgings, Ltd., and its subsidiaries; Maritime Nail company, and its subsidiaries; Collingswood Ship Building company, Ltd., Port Arthur Ship Building company, Ltd., Halifax Shipyards, Ltd., and Davie Ship Building and Repairing company, Ltd. Negotiations are in progress with several other enterprises to enter the consolidation, according to Col. Morden.

Unable to Get 'Central,' Kicks Out Booth Glass

PASSENGER TRUCKS ACCESSORIES

(UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CHICAGO AUTOMOBILE TRADE ASSOCIATION)

COLISEUM (Admission 39c) NOW UNTIL MAY 5th

OPEN FROM 10 A. M. TO 10 P. M., DAILY AND SUNDAY

It shows conclusively their confidence in the Official Tag that certifies the car as to price and mechanical condition.

CARS—all splendid values—those that won high approval by the Board of Experts are ready for the remaining days of the Auto Show.

As long as buyers have individual preferences there is no such thing as "best bargains" having been already bought up.

Look For This Tag—It Certifies the Car

IDENTIFICATION:

Each car, as it passes inspection, will have sealed on it, in a conspicuous place, the Inspection Card shown opposite. The car thus certified has measured up to all requirements.

It indicates to the buyer that the Board of Experts has declared it mechanically right and priced right. The price will also be shown very plainly. You can't go wrong and you pick your car by an expert's judgment.

INSPECTION:

All cars must pass the rigid inspection of a Board of Experts. Competent judges, selected for their known mechanical ability and integrity by the Chicago Auto Trade Association. They determine the price and adjudge the mechanical condition of each car.

Only cars that meet the high standards the experts set are allowed to be put on sale.

THESE CARS WILL BE EXHIBITED AT THE SHOW

CORNER your doctor some time and ask him to tell you right out in meetin' what he thinks about prunes. He'll tell you that prunes are a natural food, to begin with. He'll explain that prunes contain more digestible natural fruit sugar than any other fruit—sugar that you can quickly convert into energy for the work of the day. And then, he'll follow this up by saying that prunes are "rich in tonic iron"—that they contain certain concentrated food elements essential to a properly balanced diet.

1,000 FLATS PUT ON MARKET, BUT RENTS STAY UP

Big Supply of "Vacants" Puzzles Realty Men.

While despairing homeseekers offered $25 and $50 bonuses for apartments and thousands of beleaguered rent rebels stood pat in their fight to resist eviction, Chicago landlords threw more than 1,000 vacant flats on the market yesterday.

For weeks the landlords have been pleading "no apartments," and quoting the law of supply and demand in explanation of high rents. On April 30 only a few more than 250 flats were on the market.

The owners are not growing panicky. The rents did not drop; in fact they rose in a great many cases. The flat hunter could have his choice of four and five room apartments yesterday for any price between $65 and $350.

Realty Men Puzzled.

Just why the offerings in flats was quadrupled overnight is a puzzle, renting experts of real estate firms declared. They said the inability of the majority of tenants to pay the high rents may account for the large number of "vacants." The "doubling up" of two families in one flat, of which there were hundreds of instances reported, may be another cause. The tendency to store the household gods and move into hotels is growing, hotel owners state.

The explanation offered by landlords who were responsible for the increased "to let" ads yesterday were various.

A member of the firm of Baird & Warner, north side apartment agents, asserted that "a surprising number of our tenants moved out at the last minute, pleading changes in business locations which necessitated moving the home." Others declared that tenants who, they believed, would stay at the new rental, left suddenly on April 30 without explanation and the owners believe it unprofitable to sue.

2,500 Vacant Flats.

It is estimated that there are at least 2,500 apartments vacant at the present time. When they will be placed on the market is a question, but it is rumored that many are being held for the standpat tenants, who will eventually, the landlords believe, be forced out of their present flats which they are seeking to retain in defiance of notices served on them to get out.

"The situation is very serious," Herbert A. Cole, executive secretary of the Chicago Real Estate board, said. "I believe that thousands of persons ultimately will force landlords to go to the courts before they will consent to leave their apartments. This means that others who have rented the apartments from the landlords will soon become angry and perhaps attempt force to obtain possession of their new homes.

"A great many persons have stored their goods and gone to hotels. Many others have doubled up with other families and are splitting the high rents between them. It is not the laboring man who makes $50 to $100 a week, but the man on the fixed salary, who is paying the enormous rentals. The laborers are buying homes."

Chief Bailiff Dennis J. Egan of the Municipal courts said yesterday that he has instructed his men "to be considerate" in serving notices on tenants who refuse to move at the behest of landlords.

so that gradually the discussion centered about the subject of what to serve as well as how to serve it.

"For instance," Miss Roberts continued, "the idea that ... must be home-baked has long since become antiquated. Women no longer like to toil and moil in the kitchen. They ... do. And, besides, they can buy just as good, and better, all ready to serve."

"Yes, I know," ... be, "Jack and ... last week ... delicious ... tasted ... are ... the ... tempting ... melt on your ... ply delicious ... go well with almost ... the boys go hiking they always ... their pockets with them."

"Yes," interposed Miss Roberts, "I know a great deal about National Biscuit Company products, and what they mean to any household. It is really wonderful how the entire nation seems to have accepted this new order of home-efficiency—for that's what it is. I don't suppose there is any one thing more responsible for ... emancipation' than this great line of delicious, economical bakery products which all practical women of to-day recognize as so essential to good housekeeping."

She continued: "Show me the pantry shelves of any household and I will tell you the kind of housekeeper in charge there. Whenever ... well stocked with ... products ... of them—I ... ing sense ... is the ... young ... oil ... ore ... be ... high ... w that ... ch into the ... home dives ... now."

"true," exclaimed ... "Jack says that before ... many-way economy of ... National Biscuit Company ... there was always more or less trouble, annoyance and dissatisfaction.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Grand Pianos, Upright Pianos, and Player Pianos of many prominent makes are represented.

OUR ANNUAL SALE OF SLIGHTLY USED PIANOS

Four repair shops have been busy for weeks preparing for this yearly event.

In all of our experience we have never seen used Player Pianos put in such perfect condition as the instruments now to be found on our floors. Many of them show so little signs of use that it is hard to believe they have ever been taken out of the salesrooms.

There are a number of "straight" pianos which have been converted into players. All music lovers are cordially invited to make a visit of inspection. The marked saving which can be made here now, as well as the altogether unusual opportunity for selection, will surely justify many in coming to a decision in the piano question this week.

Small monthly payments may be arranged.

In slightly used instruments of the finest grades, especially liberal terms will be made.

U.S. MISSION AIDS SHIELD ORPHANS AT RISK OF LIFE

Beg Yank Help; Poilus Hold Back Turks.

BY LARRY RUE.
[By Special Cable.]

BEIRUT, April 28.—[Delayed.]—The French have evacuated Adana, and there are many Americans in Cilician cities which are beleaguered by the Turks. French garrisons at Belemadir and Bozanti has not been heard from for a month.

Americans must be got out of the beleaguered cities of Cilicia, where their lives are in serious danger. A message has reached Beirut concerning mission workers who escaped from Aintab and Urfa after being besieged a month.

Chicago Woman a Refugee.

Loretta Bigley of Chicago and Elizabeth Harris of Fort Wayne, Ind., are now at Beirut. They say the Turks were fought for twenty-one days at Aintab. When they left, the women say, they promised Americans who had lived there for twenty-five years to spare no effort to bring to the attention of the American authorities the dangerous position of the Americans in Cilicia. They hope for action. They say that neutrality is out of the question for Americans in besieged cities. They declare that Americans at Aintab and Urfa were forced, in self-defense, to shoot Turks.

Turkish nationalists are accusing the Americans of aiding the Armenians, and the predicament of the Americans at Aintab is made worse because they refuse to desert the orphans. Instead, they insist on removing a thousand of them from the bandit infested territory into the peaceful zone. This would necessitate a powerful escort.

Owe Lives to the French.

The big question arises as to the source from which such an escort would come, from the Turks or the French. Americans at Aintab now owe their safety to the strength of the French occupation there. Americans leaving there, however, with a French escort would invite massacre at the hands of Turkish nationalists on the charge that the Americans were pro-French.

The landing of an American force in Cilicia might cause a massacre of Americans at places where the Turks are supreme.

PLEA FOR CHURCHES

EACH day during this week of the campaign of the Interchurch World movement for its budget of $366,777,572 The Tribune presents a statement by a member of the citizens' committee telling why he believes in the movement and why he thinks others should support it.

BY GEORGE W. DIXON.
President, the Arthur Dixon Transfer Co.

The Interchurch World movement probably is the most important movement that the church has inaugurated since the day of Pentecost. It is a movement with a world vision. It proposes to reach the remotest man and woman of every color and every tongue with the message of the Christ.

GEORGE W. DIXON. [Matzene Photo.]

It is a movement with a world program. It includes such problems as meeting the needs of the city, keeping step with the growth of the suburbs, facing adequately the changing conditions of the world; the taking in of mission fields and lands beyond; in providing a remedy for Africa's open sore and for India's accursed castes.

It meets the needs of Japan's inquiring mind, and answers the call of China's awakening spirit; it has in it the panacea for Europe's broken and bruised heart, and proposes to bring great visions of healing to a bleeding earth.

It is a movement that ought to challenge the best there is in the very strongest men of the church. It ought to command the best investment of our time and money and talents. Nothing has appeared in any church in our day so compelling and superb in its appeal.

The Hyde Park Baptist church oversubscribed its quota yesterday, raising $210,000 for the Interchurch World Movement against the $206,000 asked and in addition subscribing $100,000 for its own use in the work. It was announced that the church expects to raise a total of $325,000, of which $225,000 will go to the world movement. The church also increased the amount for current expenditures from $25,000 to $75,000 a year and the amount for benevolences from $10,000 to $50,000.

TREE MUSEUM TO BE INSTALLED IN FOREST PRESERVE

Chicago soon is to have another great free attraction for the public. It is to be an arboretum, or tree museum, to be located in the Cook county forest preserve district. It will share interest with the McCormick zoological gardens to be established on the banks of the Desplaines river at Riverside and the projected aviary in the bottoms of the Skokie marsh to be acquired by the district.

Preliminary work has been placed by Peter Reinberg, president of the county board, in the hands of two committees, one representing the forest preserve commission and the other the public. Members of the county committee are Commissioners Goodnow, chairman; Carolan, Fitzgerald, Wilson, and President Reinberg.

447 STILLS IN 3 STATES BROKEN UP BY OFFICERS

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—Four hundred and forty-seven illicit stills were destroyed in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee, during March, according to the prohibition commission here. They were divided as follows:

Alabama, 184; Tennessee, 103; Georgia, 160. Prohibition officers in Alabama made eighty-five of these seizures, in Tennessee they are credited with fifty-two, and in Georgia seventy-three. The remaining seizures were made by revenue agents and civil officers.

Seize Much Mash.

Peoria, Ill., May 2.—Federal prohibition officers tonight seized 11,000 gallons of mash, to be used for making whisky, on a farm near here. It is claimed that this is the largest still seized anywhere in the country by United States agents.

Did it reach your HEART?

You know that 30 great denominations are co-operating in a world plan to make each church and each denomination render bigger, broader service for all mankind. You know something of the needs that must be met---

—More and better hospitals
—More and better Christian schools
—More doctors abroad
—More teachers abroad
—A living wage for ministers
—Americanization
—Meeting the rural problem
—An expanding program in our American cities
—An adequate program of EVANGELISM for the whole world
—To make the spirit of Jesus dominant in our national and world problem and program.

You've read of this---It reached your eyes, but has it reached your heart?

Millions of members of our churches have already responded. Generously! The response is growing every day, every hour. But hundreds of thousands who are not connected with the churches, but are friendly to the EVANGELISTIC and PHILANTHROPIC program of the churches, have not been reached---hence, this direct appeal.

If you have not been asked to give your share to this, God's work for mankind, give now and give from your heart.

NOW!

Give now. Don't wait longer for a canvasser to call. You need send no payment now---your promise will be sufficient.

Please fill out the pledge below. Give the maximum amount according to your ability to give or as you have been prospered---this has meant thus far amounts ranging from many hundreds or thousands per month down to $50.00 a month, $25.00 a month, $5.00 a month, $1.00 a month---even the smallest amount will help carry on the great work of the KINGDOM of God just that much further. Write your address plainly and mail the pledge below today.

ARNSTEIN GANG AID SLAIN FOR LOOT "HOLDOUT"

New York, May 2.—[Special.]—Benjamin M. Binkowitz, messenger for Richard C. Whitney & Co., bankers and brokers at 14 Wall street, who disappeared last August with $178,000 worth of securities belonging to his employers, was stabbed to death on a road near Milford, Conn. His refusal to turn over the stolen securities for $1,000 cost him his life.

Evidence to that effect, it was learned today, developed at the secret hearings before Alexander Gilchrist, United States commissioner, in the joint bankrupcy proceedings against "Nicky" Arnstein, fugitive from justice, and David W. Sullivan, head of the brokerage house of Sullivan & Co. of this city and Washington, D. C. Sullivan has confessed he obtained from Arnstein and "Nick" Cohen $600,000 worth of securities, stolen in the financial district in the last year.

Lured to Death.

The police say they have evidence that the death of Binkowitz was decreed two days after he refused to give up the stolen securities. He was hiding in an east side tenement. By telling him they had found a purchaser for the securities the slayers lured him into an auto, drove him to Milford, and killed him. The slayers, the police say, were professional killers.

Fifteen persons, not yet under indictment, are accused of criminal complicity in the $2,500,000 stock and bond thefts by sworn statements and confessions to be filed in the United States District court by Paul S. Myers, attorney for the National Surety company.

Tammany Man Implicated.

One of these persons is well known in Tammany Hall. Several are Canadians and others are persons either now or recently engaged in the practice of law or in the brokerage business in the New York financial district.

All are said to have been associated directly or indirectly with Arnstein and Cohen.

One confession, Myers declared, was made by "Big Eddie" Furey, who was captured in the Woolworth building on Feb. 10 while trying to engineer a deal to steal $5,000,000 worth of stocks in one day and flee to Montreal. "Big Eddie," Myers said, told under oath of robberies which he engineered below the "deadline" and furnished the name of the "big politician."

MEET AT TRAINS, MEET AT CHURCH; TO MEET AT ALTAR

JEANE E. HASKINS. [Morrison Photo.]

Every Monday morning she packed her algebra and a few hair nets in a suit case and walked over to the Irving Park station, where she took the 7:30 train for Evanston to spend the week at Northwestern university.

Every Monday morning he tossed his chemistry book and a clean collar into a grip and ran over to the Irving Park station, where he caught the 7:35 train for the city to spend the week at the University of Chicago.

But every Sunday morning they met at the Irving Park Methodist church, where her father has been pastor for twenty-two years.

And yesterday Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Haskins of 3809 North Keeler avenue announced the engagement of their daughter, Jeane Elizabeth, to Arthur Ralph Colwell of 4140 North Springfield avenue.

Miss Haskins was graduated from Northwestern in 1918 and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Colwell was graduated from the University of Chicago and is now attending Rush Medical college. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi and Nu Sigma Nu.

Dutch Family of 9 in U. S. to Join Indiana Father

New York, May 2.—[Special.]—Ellis island officials today received with welcoming arms the second large and prosperous Dutch family that has arrived within two days. Today's arrivals were Mrs. Elodie Selis, who came with eight children to join her husband, a prosperous merchant at Mishawaka, Ind. The husband was not able to come from the west, but offered a $10,000 bond with his identifying affidavit. The family will be admitted.

Heroic Fire Fighters Save Big Part of Port Richmond

New York, May 2.—[Special.]—Heroic fire fighting saved Port Richmond, Staten Island, from possible destruction today when a $350,000 blaze swept the plant of the National Lead company, destroyed valuable railroad and water front property, and wiped out nine adjacent dwellings. Fire companies from Manhattan rushed into ferryboats made a ten mile trip to help squelch the flames.

Sir Thomas Russell, 79, Home Rule Foe, Is Dead

DUBLIN, May 2.—The Right Honorable Sir Thomas Wallace Russell died here today. He was born Feb. 28, 1841.

Sir Thomas Wallace Russell for many years was a member of the house of commons, where he took an active part against the Irish home rule movement in its early days. He was the principal promoter of the land acts committee in 1894.

BUILDING A FAMILY

A poorly nourished family is a liability; a well nourished family is an asset—a self-sustaining, self-reliant defense against hunger and want. Shredded Wheat is the perfect food for children and grown-ups. Contains all the body-building elements in the whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two of these crisp little loaves of baked whole wheat with hot milk or cream for breakfast will make you fit for the day's work. Delicious with fruits.

Two Weeks From Today

The motor truck interests of Chicago and all other progressive communities will celebrate Ship by Truck-Good Roads Week

Trains of motor trucks will start out from hundreds of cities into the surrounding territories carrying a live message to farmers and merchants en route:

That the motor truck—first proven at the Battle of the Marne and developed through four years of war—has broken the transportation tie-up in America and is carrying the short haul tonnage of the nation.

Ship by Truck is clearing away congestion at railway terminals; it is releasing our railroads for the development of profitable long-haul facilities. Ship by Truck is extending the trading radius of every town and city. It is bringing farm products direct to the market quickly and economically.

Where the traffic is developed, there the highway is needed. Ship by Truck demonstrates the commercial value of Good Roads—a clinching argument.

During the week of May 17th to 22nd thousands of Ship by Truck-Good Roads demonstrations from Maine to California will arouse the public consciousness to the need of better distribution and quicker transportation.

Leaders in the Nation's business, in the financial world and in government circles, endorse the Ship by Truck movement and this great demonstration of its efficiency.

The commercial interests of Chicago are backing the Chicago tours. It is a great co-operative movement that every citizen has an interest in.

To truck owners, operators and everyone concerned with better short haul transportation:

Annual May Sale of Muslin Undergarments

American, French, Philippine and Porto Rican Lingerie at the Lowest Prices for the Qualities Offered

THE Sale lays increasing emphasis on the effort which this Store is making to offer dependable merchandise at the lowest possible price. All of the garments featured are new, of good materials and careful workmanship. The imported styles are beautifully embroidered, in wide selection of patterns. Featured today are:

Philippine Nightgowns and Envelope Chemises, $2.95

Embroidered in the Philippines, they are made from our own fine materials, cut from our own patterns. There are ten different designs of embroidery in the assortment. The difficulty we have in getting these shipments and the rare intervals at which they come, make the value doubly remarkable.

In the May Sale, 600 Corsets at $4

There are four models at this price, for the slender or average figure. They are of pink broche and batiste, well-made and well-finished. All women with Corset needs will find this a timely opportunity, just now before planning Summer clothes.

Fifth Floor, South, State.

Fine Covert Habits at $62.50

A NEW Habit is featured in the Sports Apparel Section today—a Habit of such beautiful texture and lightness of weight that it is an ideal selection for Spring wear.

The coat has clean cut English lines and flaring skirts. The breeches are beautifully tailored, with suede reinforcements.

Many new Sweaters and Separate Skirts, Sports Dresses and Gay Silk Overblouses are featured in the present displays for country club and Summer wear.

Sports Apparel, Sixth Floor, Wabash.

Writing Paper Low-priced

THROUGH large orders placed months ago, we offer good Writing Paper at a price lower than that for which paper of equal quality is ordinarily sold. This fact is the more marked, in view of the general scarcity in the paper markets.

First Floor, Wabash.

Imported Ratine, Special, Yard, $2

PLANS for a vacation wardrobe doubtless include a suit of some kind of cotton fabric. For long days of motor or train travel or any kind of outdoor wear in warm weather, Ratine is extremely desirable. This is of soft, velvety quality that will not easily crease with packing. It comes in a wide selection of colors—street shades, as well as bright colors for sports wear.

Second Floor, Middle, State.

Crepe de Chine, Special, $2.75

IN the coming Summer, crepe de Chine, one of the loveliest of Summer Silks, will be used more than ever. This very comprehensive collection shows plenty of black, and white, as well as all colors—dark shades for street, bright colors for sports wear, and delicate tints for evening frocks, undergarments, and children's dancing frocks.

An excellent quality, it is 40 inches wide, and a very unusual value at $2.75, as all who see it will realize.

Second Floor, South, State.

The Summer Hats Come in with May

The Midsummer Exposition This Week Features Hats Taking a Breadth of Brim and Lightness of Fabric

ALL the charming days of Midsummer are visualized by these Hats. One sees a procession of June wedding parties, of afternoon teas on the lawn, of faultlessly dressed folk on the boardwalk, or at the smart mountain resorts. For these Hats with their wide picture brims of organdie or light colored straws take as their rightful complements frocks of sheer plain or flowered stuffs.

Every woman will want at least one such Hat in her Summer wardrobe, and now, when the Midsummer Exposition is featured, is the best time to buy it.

Displays in the French Room—Here the Hats are lovely and rich with a wealth of gay flowers or the chic of a well-placed organdie bow. The newest French style whims are delightfully translated.

In the Salon des Debutantes—Youth is embodied into every shape, whether it be large or small, flower-accented or fabric-finished. The styles are now at their best in this Exposition.

The White Frock You Wore

on Graduation Day

THAT was a day looked forward to for years, a day to be remembered long after. There was the odor of fresh flowers, there were the hosts of proud parents. There were the girls in their white dresses. There was you in the dress so carefully planned and lovingly made. It was fresh and crisp and wonderfully becoming. It seemed to you that that dress was the most important thing in the world.

Voiles, Organdies, Irish Dimities, Lawns, Batistes

All these fine white materials are here to make dresses for other girls who will love them as much as you did yours. There are many fancy weaves besides, all lovely for bridal outfits, too, and for sheer Summer frocks.

Models of hand-made lingerie from these materials are exhibited in the Section. Of the newest designs, some are almost whimsical in their quaintness. They may be examined for copying.

Cotton Fabrics Section, Second Floor, Middle, State.

Women's Driving Coats

Just from London

ONE of the most notable English makers sends these new Corduroy rubberized Driving Coats—spot proof, water proof, and yet possessing an immense amount of style.

They are here in lovely mouse gray, in blue, and olive, and have leather-buckled belts and large pockets. They will appeal to women who drive their own open cars, for they have the right amount of weight for between season wear. $67.50.

Leather Shells from London—Venetian lined, these are made with close-fastening cuffs and detachable turnover collars for women who motor or sail or fly. Attractively priced at $85.

Women's Coats, Sixth Floor, North, State.

Meals a Bride Can Serve

THE first of this series of demonstrations will be given this morning at 10:30. There is one each day. This week it is a dinner—"For His Family"—and the first course, today's subject, is "Canapes Romanoff," Celery and Radishes. Tomorrow's subject, the second course, will be Consomme of Beef, Croutons.

Complete programs for the whole month are available in the Section.

Household Utilities, Ninth Floor.

...OW OVER FUNDS ...F STOCKYARDS ...UNION TAKEN UP

...abor Federation Votes for Full Inquiry.

...The Stockyards Labor council, of ...hich John Kikulski is general organ... ...er and J. W. Johnstone financial sec... ...ary, formed the bone of contention ...t yesterday's meeting of the Chica... ...Federation of Labor.

...Some two weeks ago Johnstone ...harged Kikulski with making away ...ith money belonging to the organiza... ...ns and entrusted to his care. A com... ...ittee of investigation was appointed. ...At the meeting both Johnstone and ...ikulski were present. Kikulski was ...ven the floor. Johnstone had charged ...at Kikulski ha.. been given $2,200 ...aised for the benefit of striking butch... ...n in Detroit, and that Kikulski had ...romised to take the money there him...lf.

Tells of Safe Blowing.

...Kikulski in his defense said that he ...ad placed the money in a union safe, ...nd that the safe had been blown that ...ight and the fund taken. He admit... ...hat some of the money he was ac... ...used of taking could not be accounted ...or, as it was used for purposes he did ...ot care to state.

...He declared that Johnstone and ...ther leaders were jealous of his sal... ...ry of $75 a week, and then produced ...number of photographic copies of ...eceipts signed by Johnstone. One of ...hem was for $100 for repairs on ...ohnstone's auto. Others he alleged ...were proof of overpayments made to ...printers. Others, to local unions, ...showed alleged discrepancies between ...the actual sums and the amounts re... ...orted.

Charges Fund Was Taken.

...Kikulski also charged that much of ...the money collected by Johnstone for ...the Mooney defense fund was diverted ...to Johnstone's own use.

...The federation notified both John... ...one and Kikulski to report at head... ...uarters Wednesday with all their ...books for a full investigation of the ...charges of both leaders.

Kikulski Is Excited.

...During the argument Kikulski sev... ...eral times walked over to Johnstone, ...shaking his fist under the latter's nose. ...He declared Johnstone had tried to ...have State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne ...arrest him for the burning of the homes ...back of the yards," following last ...summer's stockyards strike.

..."Investigate!" he demanded. "If ...I'm the snake in the grass, I'll step ...down and out. If Johnstone proves the ...guilty one let him do likewise."

...OTEL OWNERS ...EFY STRIKING ...AITERS, COOKS

...Chicago hotels represented in the ...Hotel Men's association were standing ...pat last night in their determination ...to yield no quarter to the 3,000 strik... ...ing cooks and waiters who quit work ...Saturday.

...Employés of two more hotels, the ...Palmer house and the Sherman house, ...joined the strikers yesterday, accord... ...ing to reports from labor unions.

...Nonunion employés, mostly girls, ...were used to fill places of strikers in ...several places yesterday.

...At one club it was reported that the ...business agent of the union called to ...state that the former employés had ...expressed great dissatisfaction on the ...amount of the gratuity given to the ...waiters at Christmas time.

...He closed his oration with a request ...to see the books of the club, in order ...to determine whether or not the gra... ...uity could have been increased. His ...request was not granted.

...No violence was reported. Loop ...lunchrooms continued to operate yes... ...terday.

...An ultimatum was delivered to the ...Chicago Ice Cream Dealers' associa... ...tion by a committee from the Ice ...Cream Dealers' union that unless their ...demands for an increase in pay were ...granted today, a general strike would ...be called tomorrow.

...Two hundred and fifty drivers are ...members of the union. The men are ...now receiving a $10 a week salary in ...summer, $17 in winter, and 5 cents on ...every gallon of ice cream sold on their ...routes. They are asking for an addi... ...tional 2 cents increase on every gal... ...lon sold. The dealers' association of... ...fered a flat increase of $9, but this was ...rejected by the union.

...ARMER, $4,000 ...SPENT, WRITES ...CHECKS; PINCHED

...Clare C. Silverthorne has been visit... ...ing here since April 21, but he didn't ...think to write to his father, Peter, the ...farmer, of Welcome, Minn., until last ...night. Then he sent a night letter, ...which read, in part:

..."Dear Papa: I've been pinched. ...Need money, so I can get out."

...Clare, who is 21, accompanied a ...carload of cattle here. He sold it ...for $4,000. Then he visited a tailor, a ...haberdashery, and a barber shop. The ...girl's name is Belle. The charges are ...forgery and defrauding a hotel. One ...alleged victim is George Palfrey, ...Clare's chauffeur and guide for caba... ...ret, etc. He holds $400 in worthless ...checks, he told the police.

...In Clare's notebook there are memo... ...randa concerning other checks. A few ...excerpts: "The Emporium, $18.40, hat ...for Belle; the Chicago Feather and ...Cloak company, $75, dress for Belle; ...the Brown Cab company, $50, after ...breakfast ride for Belle; the Chic shop, ...$65, shoes and silk stockings for Belle." ..."Dunno her last name or where she ...lived. But she sure was crazy about ...me," said Clare at the bureau. "I ...wonder what's keeping her. She was ...to meet me tonight."

"JUNE" AT THE OLYMPIC

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

IT seemed to be the impression at the Olympic last evening that there are rarer things than a night at "June," though the play meant well enough and had its musical moments. Perhaps, if Mr. Andrew Tombes, the new born star, had had another comedy, or if the comedy had had another comedian, the result would have been more felicitous. At any rate the association of Mr. Tombes and "June" appeared to lack the amity, the concord, the symmetry, to say nothing of the consistency so indispensable to enjoyment of exertions in this branch of the arts.

We prefer our heroes comely, even in musical plays, and Mr. Tombes, while by no means ignoble of person, boasts few charms that may be called incendiary. His hair is absent, and his face contains errors not easily condoned. In appearance he is merely the average male. Yet the prima donna sings her love songs to him and is moved to tears when she discovers him in the compromising arms of an amorous slavey. Richard Carle and perhaps one other clown get away with the comic hero stuff, but the feat, one suspects, is outside the range of Mr. Tombes. (The foregoing enumeration of Mr. Tombes' physical liabilities is not so rude as it may appear to be, since it is merely a corroboration of admissions made by Mr. Tombes himself in the course of the drama.)

He can dance, however, and he might be funnier if Mr. Frank Stammers, his librettist, were not so meager as to wit. The fault is "June's," more than that of its star, who for years has been one of the most popular and prominent figures in vaudeville. But while the book needs hilarity it owns quantities of plot—reciting Mr. Tombes' adventures in Miami, Florida, where, as a dashing road racer, he rescues (unconsciously) a soprano heiress from what once was known as a watery grave.

Thereafter, this lady, in the clear voice and prim manner of Miss Lea Lature, languishes in admiration of him, beseeching him in moments of virginal abandon to "Ask the Stars." Besides that mellow admonition another soft song is heard, entitled "I'll Remember You." Both of them are sweet, and instinct with the mild passions of musical comedy, and they are sung just about as they should be sung.

Somewhere in the cast is Miss Betty Pierce, who is pretty, quietly magnetic, and full of likable devices, a graduate, like Mr. Tombes, of vaudeville, where she sang in one of Mr. Gus Edwards' choirs. Other favorites with the playgoers of the loop are Mr. Clarence Nordstrum, an earnest fellow, and Mr. Stanley Forde, whom one hasn't seen hereabout since the days of "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway"—or was it in another of Mr. Cohan's earlier efforts? He is adept in performances of majestic yachtsmen. The piece ran long and profitably in New York City under the name of "Nothing but Love." It may be classed as a harmless little third-rater, with a story, pretty music, good dancing, and a lively chorus, of which it can be said that it is youthful, willing, and fairly fair.

MISS ARLINE FREDERICKS IN "JUNE."

* * *

The McCormicks have affably withdrawn from A. H. Woods their permission to christen his new theater with their patronymic, and the house is again nameless.

At the Princess next Sunday night Mr. Woods will present the English farce, "Too Many Husbands," with Miss Estelle Winwood, Kenneth Douglas, Lawrence Grossmith, and Fritz Williams in the cast.

A dispatch from the New York Times says that Billie Burke's announced appearance as Lady Teazle in "The School for Scandal" has been deferred until the autumn. Thomas A. Wise and Norman Trevor will then be among those in Miss Burke's support, and after a brief season in New York Miss Burke will play in Chicago.

Mr. Ziegfeld's other plans include the presentation of the 1920 "Ziegfeld Follies" at the New Amsterdam theater early in June and the production of three or four more musical pieces during next season. Among these, it is promised, will be a piece featuring Leon Errol, to be written by George M. Cohan and produced by Messrs. Cohan, Erlanger, and Ziegfeld; an operetta of which Mischa Elman will write the score; a musical comedy starring Eddie Cantor, written by James Montgomery and Joseph McCarthy, with music by Harry Tierney; a production starring Marilynn Miller, and, in association with Messrs. Erlanger and Dillingham, another Raymond Hitchock revue.

SHOT FIRED AT REVELERS BARES HIDDEN ROMANCE

Spagnuolo has a grocery at 1459 Polk street. The shot was fired in that store a little after midnight. John Jarolem of 1455 South Sangamon street, the victim, is at the county hospital.

The grocer had some wine. All Saturday evening he had been dispensing it freely to his son, Attilio, 17 years old, and several of Attilio's friends.

It was after the party broke up that the shooting occurred. The guests had left, when it was remarked by some one that they hadn't drunk all the wine in the shop. They went back. Spagnuolo ordered them out. They wouldn't go. After the shooting a crowd tried to force its way in. Spagnuolo fired again, this time at the crowd, and then the police arrived.

And then it was learned that for ten years Spagnuolo has been living with Maria Antonucci. There are two children. Back in Italy there is a wife and three children.

"What will become of me?" Spagnuolo asked last night. "That boy Attilio has sent for his mother and his brothers. They will find out all. What will become of me?"

And outside the cell Maria Antonucci, an old schoolmate of Spagnuolo's wife, asked the same question, "What will become of me and of my children?"

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

LOUIS TUPLER fell three stories over a railing at 5311 North Clark street and broke a leg and arm.

FIVE HUNDRED were initiated into the Greater Chicago chapter of the Moose, giving it a membership of 2,700.

BURGLARS GOT $2,100 in jewels, Liberty bonds, thrift stamps, and clothing from David Greenwald, 4431 North Winchester. He asks them to send back the papers they also took.

Church Asks Con Con to Put Bible Into Schools

Members of St. James' Methodist Episcopal church, East Forty-sixth street and Ellis avenue, yesterday petitioned the constitutional convention at Springfield to insert a clause in the new constitution requiring school teachers to read at least ten verses from the Bible at the opening session of each school day.

LARGER BONDING POWER FOR CITY SEEMS CERTAIN

Con Con Delegates for Increase in Limit.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

There is every indication that the constitutional convention will permit an increase in the limit on Chicago's bonding powers from $82,658,568 to $352,399,761. Some delegates of influence want to boost it to $469,866,348.

The Bondmen's club of Chicago has suggested the smaller figure and the Chicago bureau of public efficiency the higher one. The drafting committee on revenue has promised to decide on the figure tomorrow.

All Favor Increase.

Nearly every delegate believes that the bonding power of cities for general corporate purposes should be boosted. At present that power is limited by 5 per cent of the assessed valuation of all property, which is one-half of the full valuation. The convention will decide, as a minimum, that the cities shall have power to issue bonds against 5 per cent on the full valuation of the real estate only. That means an increase in Chicago's borrowing power from $82,000,000 to $117,466,587, on the present valuations.

In addition it is proposed to give Chicago the financial power to acquire public utilities. The ardent advocates of municipal ownership have been clamoring for that for many years. Others see a political or financial advantage of a personal character in gaining such power for the city of Chicago. These have been fought by private financial institutions and the public utility corporations.

Want Marketable Securities.

They explain they want good marketable bonds and in sufficient quantities, if the city is to take over the utilities. They are opposed to bonds secured only by the property of the utility. They favor full credit bonds of the city, having the entire taxing power of the municipality behind them.

To acquire the utilities of Chicago some delegates think that 10 per cent additional bonds will be sufficient. That means an added bonding power of $234,933,174. Others want fifteen per cent additional. That in bonding power on the present valuations means $352,399,761.

BROKER STABBED IN CABARET ROW OVER WHISKY

Edward R. Kraft, who gave his occupation as a broker, was stabbed and seriously injured in the Camel gardens, a cabaret at Ontario and Clark streets, early this morning. Two men were arrested and Kraft was taken to his home, 926 Lawrence avenue, by a friend.

At the East Chicago avenue station the men gave their names as James Flanigan, 4142 Fillmore street, and Michael Gotz, 737 South May street. Kraft identified Flanigan as the man who stabbed him.

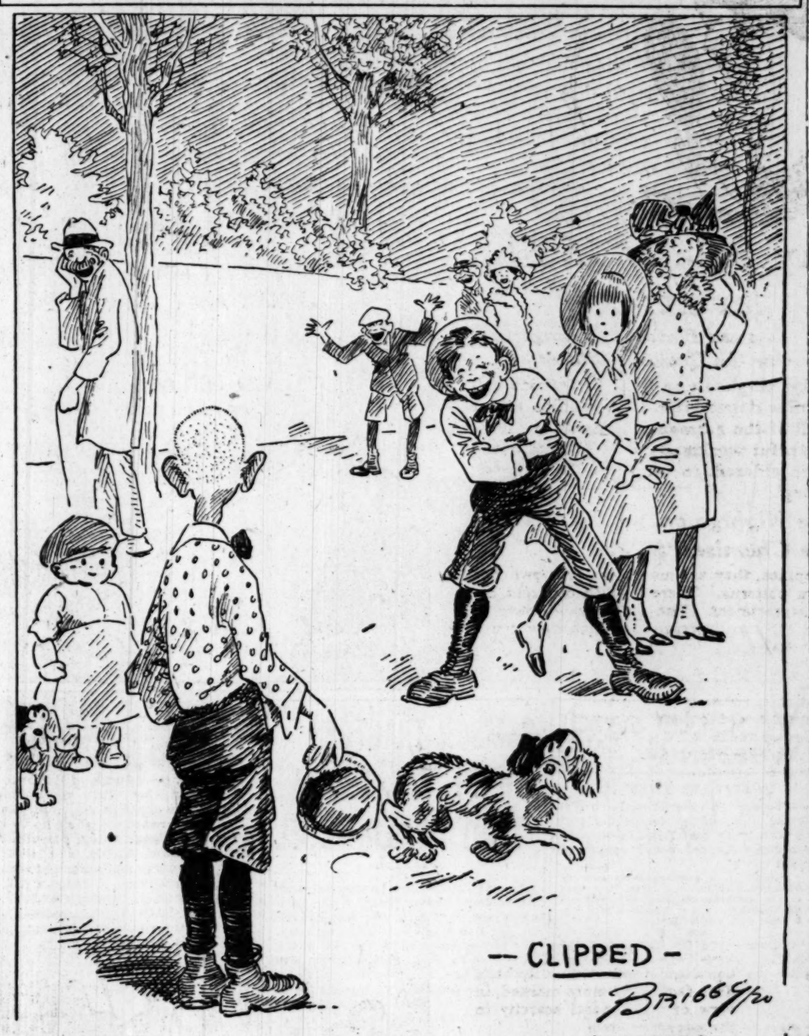
Both Sides Feared Holdup; Police Shoot Baker in Hip

Sergts. Barber, Cullerton and Hanley were in the Desplaines street station flivver driving along Jackson boulevard early this morning when they saw a man carrying a bundle near Aberdeen street. Thinking him a holdup, they called on him to halt. He ran. He thought they were robbers. They shot, they say, in the air, but one bullet hit the man in the hip. It developed he was Elmer Hansen, a baker, 1151 Adams street, and he was carrying an empty jug. He is in the county hospital. His condition, the police say, is not serious.

Boy Kills Father in Row Over "Installment" Suit

Antonio Marsico, 2828 South Wells street, was shot and killed by his son, Guy, 17, last night, following a family row over a suit the boy had purchased on the installment plan. According to the boy and his mother, the father started for a razor. The mother threw a plaster of paris statue at her belligerent husband, but missed. Guy then ran into the bedroom and got a revolver.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND



BEG YOUR PARDON!

The Pillsbury club of Minneapolis was mentioned in reporting a $25 donation to the tornado fund. It should have been Pillsbury club of Chicago.

In Sunday's TRIBUNE an article concerning charges brought against Eugene M. Hoyne of having violated rule of the Chicago Board of Trade said in part:

"Hoyne has been a frequent visitor to the board recently, it is reported, and is alleged to have made overtures to members looking toward 'gentle handling' of his case."

Mr. Hoyne denies that he has spoken to any director about his case.

In yesterday's TRIBUNE it was said: "Four of the big clubs, the Union League, the Chicago Athletic association, the Illinois Athletic, and the Chicago, and many of the outlying hotels and restaurants, have signed up with the strikers" (cooks and waiters). Club and hotel managers deny any such agreement has been made.

COLLEGE BUREAU MAY SUPPLY 'REAL' FRENCH MAIDS

It will not be long before milady can call up the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupations, ask for a real French governess and be assured the first steamer from Bordeaux or Brest will carry ma'm'selle.

MISS HELEN BENNETT.

Miss Helen Bennett of the bureau yesterday received a letter from a federation of thirty-nine French employment agencies offering to coöperate on a plan by which young professional women of France may be placed in American positions and Uncle Sam's co-eds be sent to France to obtain jobs.

VERSE FLOWS AS BEER ONCE DID IN RELIC HOUSE

The plaster frog perched high on the molding would have liked to croak. It gave the stained glass window a pain.

Poetry in the Relic House! Verse flowing where good beer foamed since Lincoln park was a grass plot!

For Dr. Ben Reitman—lately the biggest pickle in the Dillpickle club—led his flock to the Relic House, at 2037 North Clark street, and established the "House of Blazes" last night, where they versed and rhymed, foamed and fumed, and orated at great length.

"If your wife runs off with your neighbor, come and tell us your sensations," he invited the audience that filled the ancient tavern.

The principal speaker of the evening, he announced, had torn his pants and could not attend. So Bert Weber, a self-confessed poet, rattled off the following anent prohibition:

The day is dark and cold and drear—
'Tis dry and the windpipes howl for beer.
The grapevine clings to the moulding wall.
The day is dark and cold and drear.

Thursday night, it was announced, will always be poetry night, when all may come and read their renditions.

MORE ARRESTS IN HARRIGAN QUIZ NEAR, POLICE SAY

Two more confederates and another cache of the burglar, James J. Harrigan, who was slain in a police duel last Sunday night, were revealed to the police yesterday. Arrests are imminent, detectives assert.

Gustave N. Bart, 3938 North Kimball avenue, identified Harrigan's body at the county morgue as that of the man who leased his garage at 4228 North Troy street, under the name of J. J. Brost.

Mrs. O. Lundberg, residing in the apartment building on the same lot, told the police of visits made to the garage by two young men, about 21 years old, who aided Harrigan in his mysterious enterprises.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.

The Answers.

DR. J. F. CUNNINGHAM, 2931 Ellis avenue, a physician and surgeon—Yes, I think so. I believe that the movie companies would put out some mighty sensual pictures to attract the public if we did not curb them. We have to keep the movies and the plays within certain bonds, you know.

H. J. WARKANS, 8 East Pierson street, a railroad solicitor—No, I don't think a censorship is necessary. There has been so much graft in the movie business that the producers know they can't put out immoral or "bad influence" pictures and get away with it. A censor is unnecessary now, although when the industry was in its infancy it was very necessary.

HENRY TAYLOR, 4325 Cottage Grove avenue, a salesman—I suppose there are certain things in most every picture that would not have a good influence on our children. I am in favor of a board of review.

MISS ALICE HEELAN, 5741 Calumet avenue, a waitress—Yes, we must keep the movies good and clean or the children will get wrong ideas of the world.

ALBERT SEITZ, 4211 Washington boulevard, a machinist—Yes, to a certain extent. Movie producers are inclined to step over the lines a bit at times. Why, do you know that half of the ultra fashionable pictures of New York life we see now are filled with women clad in backless gowns and short dresses? What would happen if we didn't have censors?

SCHOONER ABANDONED AT SEA.

New York, May 2.—The Norwegian motor schooner Riscer, 1,343 tons, caught fire and was abandoned at sea about 500 miles southeast of Montauk point today. The steamer City of Canton is bringing the schooner's crew to this port. The Riscer left Norfolk, Va., last Thursday for Denmark.

HOOVER VIEWS OF CAMPAIGN— BY MR. HOOVER

Chance of Lifetime for the G. O. P., He Says.

Herbert C. Hoover has given out, through his campaign committee, a detailed statement of his views of the issues of the campaign. In his statement he says:

"The Republican platform will doubtless be constructed around two general themes, first, the party view as to the many measures before the country; second, the less tangible but of even greater importance, the ideals that the party will represent.

"Never before has it been so important that the party should convey its position in these matters to the public through definite and positive proposals, in order that conviction may be given not only of sincerity but in demonstration of the vital necessity of the party itself to the nation.

Aim of All Platforms.

"All the different party platforms will urge some form of a league of nations, a business reorganization of federal administration, an economy in government, a national budget, readjustment of taxation, reduction of cost of living, suppression of profiteering, betterment of agricultural industry, improved relations between capital and labor, better distribution of wealth, an American merchant marine, maintenance of civil liberty, extension of education, improvement of waterways, and many other items.

"I am for all of these things, but I wish to call attention to the fact that they will be put forward in every party. Therefore the Republican party must do something more than enumerate issues it favors. This is not only vital to the party, but it is fundamental for the working of our democracy to give confidence to the values of party government.

Must Expose Whole Hand.

"It is not enough to denounce profiteering; a statement of the specific economic steps by which the rise in prices must be checked and equilibrium restored is required. They involve such dull things as reduction of inflation, readjustment of taxation, better distribution through organization of the agricultural industry, better transportation, the practical reduction of losses, and margins and risks between producers and consumers.

"Our people are only secondarily interested in the remedies and adjustments which all sides will promise to promote. They crave a demonstration of the moral, social, and economic ideals that are to dominate the solution of these questions. In defining what it proposes to do the party must reach into the aspirations of our people and into the social philosophy upon which our national life is founded.

Party Must Back League.

"Our people have an ideal of world service. It is now a dozen years since Republican leaders—including Roosevelt—first proposed a league. This ideal cannot be ignored by the party. Its living force will insist upon our joining in the organization of the moral forces of the world, to reduce armament, check militarism, and relieve oppression.

"Our people do not desire to see us pledged to use force in these purposes; furthermore, they have no more sympathy with the growth of militarism at home than abroad. They will be faced with this growth and its cost if we insist on an isolation that we cannot maintain. Failure to support the league of nations, with proper reservations, would be a shock to the spiritual aspirations of the American people.

Cannot Tolerate Minority.

"In the ideals and standards to be applied to our economic problems the Republican party must enunciate a social ideal that does not tolerate either socialism or the centralization of wealth and the domination of capital. The great ranks of our people are neither radical nor reactionary. They understand full well that the domination of any individual or any interest is a negation of our real national faith. They believe that such domination is going on today, and they want correction of it.

"They recognize that the starting point and safeguards of these ideals is education. There cannot be equality of opportunity without an absolutely equal opportunity for physical development and education of the children of the poor and better-to-do alike.

"Furthermore, education and the working of public conscience of our community in safeguard of these ideals comprises the freedom of the press, of assembly, and of speech on a pre-war footing, to advancement of ideas through the ballot box, to trial by jury.

Want Action, Not Words.

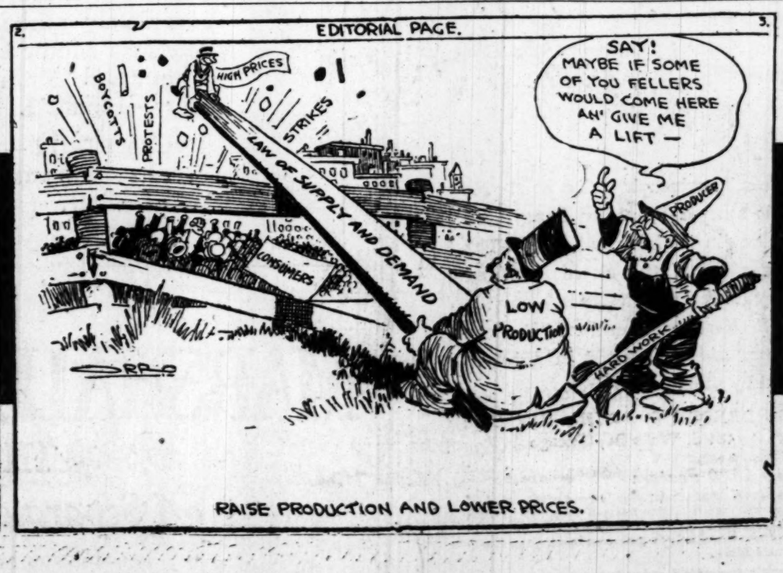
"Nor are liberal ideals alone sufficient. Ours is a practical people, to whom ideals furnish the theory of political action, upon which they want not only firm assurance but also effective practice.

"They want programs, but they want action to flow from them. They want constructive common sense. They want the development of the common will, not the views of a single individual. They are beginning to realize that words without action are the assassins of idealism. On the other side, they are equally disgusted with seeking for power by destructive criticism, demagoguery, specious promises, and sham.

"This is, therefore, the great opportunity of the Republican party."

Body of Williams College Founder Will Be Moved

Glens Falls, N. Y., May 2.—Necessary papers to permit the removal of the remains of Col. Ephraim Williams, founder of Williams college, from the place near Lake George, where he was killed Sept. 8, 1755, while commanding a regiment of Massachusetts infantry in the French and English war, to Williamstown, Mass., have been granted by the officials of the town of Queensbury.



PREPS LOOK GOOD EVEN IN DEFEAT AT LAKE FOREST

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Up at Lake Forest academy the boys play baseball so well that they look good even in defeat. Errors always are excusable. They make 'em in the big leagues. Errors caused practically all of the trouble for the north shore lads Saturday, when they were defeated by Hyde Park, 8 to 3. In other ways the Lake Forest boys played the game as it is played in stylish circles. They blundered with their hands, but they were mentally alert and proficient.

The national game appears to be a part of the life of every one at the north shore institution. Players, students, and even bald and bearded professors get relaxation, recreation, and red blood from it. With such enthusiastic support baseball might be absorbed by the players, but the chances are most of it has been given to them by Coach F. L. Brown, who once performed at Miami college and then was with the Cincinnati Reds long enough to get a cup of coffee, as he himself stated. Following his big league trial he played a few seasons in the Eastern league.

Fine Uphill Battle.

Battling in an uphill fight all the way against Hyde Park, the Lake Forest boys did everything possible to overhaul their rivals and did nothing to hurt their chances to win—nothing except to make some errors. A couple of wild heaves by the pitcher and a couple of bobbles by the third baseman, did so much damage that the game couldn't be pulled out of the fire.

Capt. Roscoe Holm, who is affectionately dubbed "Wattie" by the boys, is far above the average "prep" man as a ball player, and many be heard of some day in professional circles, if he decides to take up baseball as a business. At shortstop he handled himself beautifully, picking up the ball gracefully and throwing from any position.

At the bat he was even more natural, though he landed only one safe blow. Another terrific drive went straight to an outfielder. Besides that, he can pitch even better than the regular slabman, whom he relieved at the finish of the game. "Wattie" fanned three of the six batsmen who faced him.

Brother of Larry Kopf.

While "Wattie" is the ace of the team, considerable distinction has been attained by Herbert Kopf because he is a brother of Larry Kopf, shortstop of the world's champion Cincinnati Reds. Herbert plays second base or shortstop, and in many ways besides looks, resembles his famous brother. His throwing isn't as strong, but in fielding and batting he appears to have acquired some valuable information from Larry. He uses one of those Heinie Groh bats, too. Another year or two with the amateurs might improve his base running enough to permit him a trial with the pros.

Ip Frank Pagenkopf, the team has a first baseman a few points above the average "prep" man. His fielding was stylish, and he knows how to play the game at all times, but was weak at the bat. Glenn McCormick had a tough day in fielding grounders down third base way, but has speed on the bases. Once he stole second and then scored from that point when the next man reached first on a wide throw from shortstop.

Rohrback Is Inexperienced.

Vic Rohrback, who is a bit new at pitching, has the speed and strength to make a slabman, but his wildness and failure to field his position well on this occasion caused his downfall. He's a star at football, but needs more experience at the diamond game.

Big Gerald McGrath is an efficient backstop and pegger, and a swell hitter as well. He is a husky of about 200 pounds and still has as much pep as any of them.

Garvin Saunders, George Gibbs, and Leroy Kellog are the regular outfielders and played batters better than any set of outfielders I have seen on other "prep" teams. They were in close when there was likely to be a play at the plate, they shifted off toward right for the left handed hitters and the other way for the right handers, and they handed all chances perfectly.

A crew of pinch hitters and utility men were present in Henry Cole, who hurls and plays outfield; Graham McClintock, Eugene Pattison, Jack Sanders, outfielders, and "Reggie" Catchpole, who is ready to catch if anything ever happens to the husky Mr. McGrath.

QUESTIONS THEY ASK.

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—(1) What is the best varnish for fishing rods? (2) How many coats? (3) Is a nine foot six ounce fly rod heavy enough for black bass? E. R. S.

Answers—1. A good grade of spar or aeroplane varnish. 2. A light coat, then one or two heavier ones, and finally a light finishing coat will make a good job. 3. Yes; just about ideal.

* *

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—I hear that Fox lake is a state fish and game preserve. Does this mean that fishing and hunting is not allowed there? N. Z.

Answer—No; hunting is not permitted, as Fox lake is a game refuge; fishing with hook and line, including set and throw lines, is permitted in state fish preserves; the use of nets and seines in such waters is unlawful.

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—What is the difference, if any, between a rainbow and steel head trout? E. P.

Answers—Very little difference, so little, in fact, that most anglers living in the far west claim they are the same fish, a belief that one of our leading ichthyologists, Dr. David Starr Jordon, now shares after classifying them separately for many years.

BRICKIES TAKE PEEL CUP MATCH

The Bricklayers entered the semi-finals of the Peel cup competition yesterday by defeating the Swedish-Americans, 3 goals to 1, at Bricklayers' park. At the end of the regulation ninety minute period the score was deadlocked at one goal each, and an extra half hour had to be played. The "mortar slingers" led, 1 to 0, at half time. Truesdale putting them in the lead by netting a ball about twenty-five minutes after the start. Magnuson tied the score early in the second half with a shot from close range. Heron and Heath both tallied in the last chapter.

Palmer Park also reached the semi-finals, defeating Alverno A. A., 2 to 0, at Fifty-second and Cottage Grove. At Forty-ninth avenue and Sixteenth street the Thistles won from Olympias, 1 to 0. The Hill Pumps won from the Innisfails, 4 to 0.

Des Jardien Slaps Homer as Normals Cop, 4 to 3

The Normals won an uphill battle from Dodger Trainings, 4 to 3, at Normal park, Buckeye and Rube Ehrhardt hooking up in a slab duel. Jake Scanlon's single with two down in the ninth scored Winkler, who had singled and taken second on Swanson's sacrifice. Shorty Des Jardien's home run was a feature. Score:

New York Hails Carpentier's Display of Class at Benefit

New York, May 2.—[Special.]—Georges Carpentier, Europe's heavyweight champion, was officially uncovered tonight before the admiring gaze of some 2,000 spectators at the 71st regiment armory, at a benefit entertainment for the fund for erecting a Manhattan navy club. The first glimpse of the popular French war hero and boxing idol in ring togs in New York was a revelation, and the spectators demonstrated their appreciation with a round of applause.

Carpentier opened his part of the entertainment with a shadow boxing session. He was escorted to the ring by a company of guardsmen to the tune of "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Salutes French Anthem.

When the French champion set foot upon the stage the band struck up the "Marseillaise" and the French hero stood at rigid attention while the crowd rose.

Carpentier was clad in a white jersey and white trunks. Disrobed, he made a picture which impressed. His face, reflecting the student, was not in perfect harmony with the well muscled body, arms, legs, and shoulders. The shoulders are broad, broader than they appear when Carpentier is in street costume.

Shows Punching Power.

Across the back are rippling muscles which reflect terrific punching power. His arms, too, are compactly developed, in proportion to his other dimensions, and his legs appear sturdy and strong.

He showed himself possessed of terpsichorean agility in his boxing movements and equipped with a latent defense which probably would be difficult of penetration.

JUNIORS TO MEET TOMORROW.

The Liberty and Junior leagues will hold their weekly meeting tomorrow night at 128 West Randolph street, the Liberty league at 6:30 p. m. and the Juniors at 8 o'clock. Umpires wishing to secure positions in the leagues may apply to the chief umpire.

BOWLERS FIND PINS HARD TO KNOCK DOWN IN STATE TOURNEY

Despite real bowling weather, players on yesterday's schedule of the Illinois Bowling association found the pins hard to get. The Nationals of Elgin showed best in the main event with 2,899, followed by the Lashers of the same city with 2,688. Frank Vonesh of Chicago got 619 for high among the individuals. Bollweg got 598. William Schadele and F. Huckstead got 1,137 for the top mark in the doubles. Leading scores:

"The Motor Utilities Exhibit is in The STORE for MEN"

This Sixth Annual Exhibit Begins This Morning and Lasts Throughout the Week

It is an exhibit that will interest any man who owns a car or expects to own one.

It will give a man new ideas on how to get the most satisfaction, comfort and safety out of motoring by the addition of little accessories to his car.

Among the Many Exhibits Are:

MARMON 34—two factory experts will tear down and completely rebuild the new Marmon Motor in less than 1 hour and 45 minutes, twice daily—12 and 3.

BREAKS IN NINTH AND TENTH GIVE CUBS GAME, 5-4

BY I. E. SANBORN.

A film of ice, forming on the eyeballs of Harold Janvrin just as he was about to retire the third Cub in the ninth inning yesterday, caused him to muff a pop fly. It gave Chicago the tying tally, and with the aid of that reprieve we went on and copped the final game from St. Louis, 5 to 4, in ten rounds.

WILLIAM KILLEFER.

That was the first good break the Cubs got in a battle that was full of breaks and was fought under conditions unequaled outside the Hudson Bay league.

It was so cold the saliva froze as fast as Hendrix applied it, consequently Claude experienced great difficulty in getting them over. One bad inning in the fourth apparently spelled his defeat, for the Cards scratched three runs right there.

Claude Starts Own Rally.

It was 4 to 3 in favor of the enemy when Hendrix came up in the last half of the ninth.

Flack sacrificed Bill to third, and the rooters loosened up. Hollocher snapped a bounder to Hornsby, who fumbled an instant, but recovered in time to get his man at first, holding McCabe on third. Herzog, with three hits already to his credit, was next. This time he popped a fly high over short. Janvrin ran out and called for it, but the ball stayed up so long his eyes frosted and he muffed. McCabe counted on the run that tied.

Aleck in Tight Hole.

Alexander went on in the tenth and began by striking out Hornsby. Fournier worked Alex for a pass, then stole second, and reached third when Alex forced wildly trying to pick him off the keystone. But Alexander breezed up and struck out both McHenry and Janvrin.

Haines, who relieved May in the third, started our tenth by beaning Paskert. Deal sacrificed him to second. Robertson was passed intentionally to bring up Killefer. Our Will delivered a liner to short right center. McHenry made a brave try, but the ball shot through him and Dode raced in.

They started with a run apiece in the first. Stock's double and Hornsby's single made one of them. The Cubs made theirs without a hit. Flack walked, Hollocher was hit, and two infield plays let the former count.

Big Opening Is Lost.

The Mitchells made only one tally out of four singles, a base on balls, and a wild pitch in the third, because Hollocher was nailed at the plate trying to score from second on a hit by Barber. Haines was sent to the slab in that round with two out and the bases full. Robertson went to bat in Friberg's place and flied out.

Next time Robertson came up, in the sixth, he smashed a long one over the right field wall, screen and all.

Previous to this, the Cards garnered three runs in the fourth. Stock walked. Hornsby hit an infield sizzler, and Fournier filled the sacks by beating out a bunt. McHenry forced Stock at the plate, but Janvrin singled, scoring two runs. Clemons walked, filling the bases again. Haines fanned, but Hollocher fumbled Shotton's roller, while McHenry scored.

Notes

Next game here Sunday.

The Cubs took two out of the three from St. Louis and it is the first series they have won this season.

Barber and Herzog had a hard time deciding who should cover first on bunts. Once in the sixth Herzog barely got there in time to make a play that apparently belonged to Barber. He threw the ball angrily on the ground and let a runner go from second to third, but it happened not to cost anything.

SOX KEEP PROCESSION OF BROWNS MOVING TO BENCH IN 7-3 VICTORY

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

St. Louis, Mo., May 2.—[Special.]—Clouting the ball in reckless fashion, Kid Gleason's White Sox whipped the Browns again today, 7 to 3. Four right handed hurlers were employed in an effort to check the Chicagoans, and only one of the four enjoyed any success. The others three were victims of all the Sox runs and hits, the latter numbering thirteen for twenty bases.

ROY WILKINSON.

Out of necessity Gleason called Roy Wilkinson from the bullpen to make his maiden start. The rookie right hander wasn't as effective as when he relieved Faber in the game at Cleveland, but with sparkling support he got by. He had enough courage to stick the ball over the plate and trust to the fielding ability of his pals. There were other times when Wilkie plainly showed he is a youth of promising proportions.

Lots of Action in Second.

It required two innings to convince Manager Burke that Leverette was not a suitable pitcher. He got by in the first frame, although Eddie Collins tripled with two down. The second chapter was something else again. Felsch opened with a home run over left field wall. Jourdan walked but was caught at first. Risberg singled and took third on a hit by Schalk. A double steal was started and Risberg not only scored but Schalk returned safely to first. The next two batters did nothing.

In the Browns' second, Williams accidentally hit the ball and got a single after one was out. Jacobson walked. Severeid skied to Felsch. Gerber spanked a single to center, Williams scooting home. Earl Smith batted for Leverette and bounced to Risberg for a force out.

Two Flingers Work in Third.

Burwell tarried on the slab for a few busy moments in the Sox third. One gone, Eddie Collins singled. Jackson repeated. Felsch slammed a hit past third and Collins counted. Jourdan bounced a high one between first and home and got a hit on it, filling the bases. Risberg hit safely to left, Jackson and Felsch scoring. Van Glider then relieved Burwell and got the next two batters.

Wilkinson encountered trouble in the fourth inning, one Brownie crossing the counter. Sisler opened with a two bagger that just missed clearing the screen in front of the right field bleachers. Sisler scored on a couple of outs. The Browns grabbed another tally in the fifth when Jacobson singled and Severeid tripled with two out. The Sox gave Van Gilder a touch of high life in the seventh, two scoring. After Leibold's demise, Weaver doubled to right and continued to third when Gedeon booted the return throw. Weaver walked home on Collins' two bagger down third base line. Jackson shot a single to right and Collins tallied.

DIXON, 2; ROCKFORD MAROONS, 9.

NOTES

St. Louis, Mo., May 2.—[Special.]—Same teams tomorrow.

It rained until almost 3 o'clock, and when the local club officials finally decided to play it was long after starting time.

Throughout the game Ump Chill had the task of wiping off the balls that collected mud and water in foul territory and in the outfield.

Wilkinson was inclined to be wild because he couldn't get his curve ball over. However, he never hesitated to shoot a fast one in the groove when it was necessary.

Joe Jackson and Claude Williams were grabbed as suspicious characters last night. They were returning from a show, and when near their hostelry two plain clothes men stepped up and planted gats against the ribs of the respective athletes. PHILS TAKE GAME OF HOMERS IN THIRTEENTH, 4-3

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 2.—After playing twenty-six innings to a tie in Boston yesterday, Brooklyn came home today and lost a thirteen inning game to Philadelphia, 4 to 3. Le Bourveau's home run with a man on base in the seventh gave the Phillies a three run lead, but the Dodgers scored two in their half and Wheat tied the score in the ninth with a homer over the right field wall.

PIRATES, 3; CINCY, 0.

Cincinnati, O., May 2.—Pittsburgh broke Cincinnati's winning streak of six straight games by shutting out the champions, 3 to 0. Cooper pitched brilliantly, allowing only four singles and not a home player reached second base. Sallee made his first start of the season and was effective except in two innings. The game was the fastest played in either major league this season, lasting only one hour and eighteen minutes. Score:

By Caroline Sanborn.

If you like the romance of pirates and hidden treasure, of old sailing vessels and lonely islands, you'll enjoy each moment of this presentation of Robert Louis Stevenson's tale. He looked into the heart of a lad, and with the dreams and fancies he found there he wove a story for other boys. And now it has been made into a play that takes you far from the ordinary work-a-day world into the Land of Let's Pretend.

SHIRLEY MASON. [McClure Photo.]

There are fine and courteous English gentlemen in curled wigs and silken breeches. And in bold contrast are the scarred and evil robbers of the sea with their strange oaths and villainous bowie knives. When you're not shivering in awe of them you are watching with wonder and envy the boy that might be you, doing the things you once longed to do.

Shirley Mason, with her slim figure, her bobbed hair, and her wide, unafraid eyes, makes a bewitching Jim Hawkins. With boyish bravado he always undertakes the impossible. But because it is his fairy story he always comes through unharmed. Shirley plays the part with a fearless energy that is delightful.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address Bright Sayings to Aunty Bee, Tribune, Chicago.

Mary had taken out her first library book and was told that she must return it not later than March 1 or there would be a fine to pay. March 1 came and went and the book was not returned, but on March 6 an excited Mary rushed up to the desk and thrusting her book at the librarian exclaimed breathlessly: "I forgot to bring back my book the other day, and how much do I have to pay? It was due the oneth."

The other day a precocious 2 year old came into the office, and while her mother waited for the doctor the child entertained the whole office. She talked on every subject she could think of, and at last, looking out of the window at the dingy sky, she exclaimed: "My doodness! Ain't the smoke the wimit!"

N. C. M.

Howard and Homer had been scrapping and, not knowing which to punish, their father said: "Which one shall I spank? Which one of you started this quarrel?"

Neither of them answered and he repeated: "Which one shall I spank?"

Sally Joy Brown

I want to be the medium through which the friend in deed and the friend in need may be brought together. It may be you have some discarded article which has not outgrown its usefulness that will make some less fortunate one happy, and you would gladly give it if you knew how to go about it. Write to me and I shall be only too happy to be of service to you. Please write on one side of the paper.

When information is wanted by mail a stamped, addressed envelope should accompany the request. Please do not send parcels to The Tribune, but write for the address of the applicant and send direct.

Toys Would Please Her.

Is there any one who has some toys to give to a little girl 5 years old who is nearly blind? She is sad, and as her parents are poor, they can not afford to buy the things to make her happy.

A. K."

Here is an appeal that will strike right to the heart of every mother and child, I am sure. Five years old and nearly blind!—think of that, kiddies, and see what toys you can spare to make this little girl happier.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Time to Go.

I am a widow and in the fifties. Some time ago I had a quilting bee at my home. We did not finish the quilt, but in spite of all my polite protests the women were determined to stay and finish the quilt. About 7 o'clock the bell rang and a man my age, who had been paying attention to me somewhat on the sly, silently entered. Imagine my embarrassment as the women stole out one by one and didn't even say good night.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK
Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Miss Fluffy Ruffles has given way to Miss Droopy Ruffles. Instead of making us look fat, many of the present ruffled skirts have the tendency to give the slinking line. Such is the effect of the petal skirt, made generally of chiffon or georgette in the layers of pointed ruffles which inspired the name.

Such also is that of the newest of models, the Doucet "gypsy skirt," made of whole heaps of ragged looking little ruffles. This model, which is being shown in Fifth avenue at present, is generally constructed of navy or black crêpe de chine, although any other color or any other soft, clinging fabric may be substituted, and its softness and lack of crushable tendency recommends it as much to the woman who wants travel or motor comfort as to the woman who wants a little change from plaits.

RADISHES

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Gardeners have been delayed several weeks in getting their early vegetables started, but there is still plenty of time. The most important consideration now is to have the ground in ideal condition and use the earliest varieties of seed obtainable.

Twenty days from tomorrow you can have a nice dish of radishes on your table if you will immediately plant some of the early varieties of seeds developed for speedy growth. Of course, favorable weather is needed for such rapid growth.

A regular garden is not needed for radishes. A tiny patch a few feet square will be sufficient to furnish enough for the average family.

Probably the earliest class is the little round, red ones. The early turnip varieties, so called because of their shape, have two types, oblong or round and flattened. The long, slender varieties are not so early.

The little red ones are always early, tender, and sweet, and include such varieties as the Early Bird, Scarlet Globe, Scarlet Turnip, and White Tip. The turnip radish requires little attention, but it should be started as soon as possible. There is less trouble with the weeds when radishes are planted early, because they are ready to use before the weeds are able to crowd them out.

In wet seasons like this weeds grow rapidly and must be pulled out occasionally to give the radishes a good chance. To insure a good supply of radishes throughout the season a few early seeds should be planted once every week or ten days during May. In June some of the winter varieties of radishes should be planted. They make heavy roots, which may be stored during the winter to be used in salads. The Japanese, Chinese, and Spanish varieties of winter radishes are the best for June planting.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Without a Chaperon.

"Dear Miss Blake: Is it proper for girls of 15 and 16 to go to moving picture theaters and riding with boys of their own age unchaperoned, even if they have known the boys all their lives and their mothers approve?

"D. M. D."

I wouldn't object to your going to the moving picture shows, but I don't think it's right for young folks to go out riding unchaperoned for the reason that the latter amusement is inclined to bring them home later than a movie show. However, your parents would be showing better discretion were one of them to go along.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

GEORGE: THE CALLOUS SPOTS on the feet should be rubbed with pumice stone and softened with vaseline and cold cream. Do not cut them. Blisters should be painted with collodion to protect them from the air and the friction of the hose.

A. K.: BLEEDING GUMS, SWOLlen and receding, and loosened teeth are all symptoms of pyorrhea. Go to a dentist, not a physician. I will send you the mouth hygiene instructions, but you'd better not lose a minute seeing a good dentist.

American Legion's Commander and Wife Guests Here Today

Miss Anita Blair of 2735 Prairie avenue will give a small informal luncheon today at 1 o'clock at the Women's Athletic club for Mrs. Franklin D'Olier, who will arrive this morning with her husband, the national commander of the American Legion. Miss Blair's guests have been chosen from the Chicago summer colony of Jefferson, N. H., where Miss Blair and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. D'Olier spent their summer. The guests are Mrs. Bruce Borland, Miss Sarah Farwell, Mrs. Robert A. Gardner, Mrs. Chauncey B. Borland, and Miss Abby Raymond.

Mrs. Frank O. Lowden and Miss Florence Lowden were given a tea Saturday at the Cordon, of which Mrs. Lowden is a life member.

Mrs. Cyrus Hall McCormick, Mrs. Jacob Baur, Mrs. William R. Linn, Mrs. Charles A. Chapin, Mrs. William Van Buren Ames, Mrs. Curtis N. Kimball, Mrs. Jessie S. Carnovale, Mrs. Charles W. Shippey, and Mrs. Charles Starkweather were asked to receive. Seated at the tea tables and serving were Mrs. J. Mitchell Hoyt, Mrs. Edgar Lee Masters, Mrs. Pauline Palmer, Mrs. Wallace Heckman, Mrs. George B. Carpenter, Miss Bertha L. Iles, and Miss Jeannette Pratt.

Among those who called during the afternoon were Mrs. David S. Cook Jr., Mrs. Harry Pratt Judson, Mrs. William M. Derby Jr., Mrs. William G. Sage, Mrs. Oliver Dennett Grover, Miss Emily Larned, Miss Ethel P. Wrenn, Miss Margaretta Otis, Miss Ellen Holt, Mrs. Archibald Freer, and Mrs. Robert B. Gregory.

Saturday luncheon at the Blackstone was no less fashionable because of the waiters' strike. Among the diners were Mrs. Joseph Winterbotham Jr., Mrs. Leroy W. Fuller, Mrs. Bruce Borland, Mrs. Allen B. Ripley, Mrs. William McCormick Blair, Mrs. William K. Kenly, Mrs. Wellesley Hill Stillwell, Mrs. Ralph N. Gardner, Countess Minotto, Mrs. James H. Channon, and Mrs. James W. Prindiville.

Mrs. Joseph Hunter Garaghty and Miss Louise Garaghty of 31 East Elm street have returned from wintering in California. Mr. and Mrs. E. Harvey Wilce, who occupied the Garaghtys' apartment during their absence, have returned to their home in Empire, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Winchell, who have been at the Parkway for the last few weeks, will leave in a fortnight for New York, where they will live.

Mrs. Joseph B. Long of 48 Banks street returned Saturday from a two months' stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornhill Broome of 127 East Chestnut street will return today from California, where they spent the winter. They will open their Lake Forest residence shortly.

Mrs. George C. Nixon of 999 Lake Shore drive returned yesterday from Pasadena, where she spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. Byron McNulty.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin I. Gardiner of 3202 Sheridan road have moved to Kansas City, Mo.

There will be a sale of Belgian, French, and Italian laces all this week in room 214 at the Blackstone, under the sponsorship of a number of society women. Mrs. Edward A. Leight, one of the patronesses, will entertain at luncheon tomorrow at the Woman's Athletic club for Viscomte H. de Maublanc of Paris, who, with Mme. Frere and Pierre Brinou, are to aid in the sale. The proceeds will go to the French orphans. Mrs. Levy Mayer and Mrs. Horace Jackson are among those who will act as saleswomen.

INITIATION

President of Sorority Which Will Take In Two New Members on Saturday.

MISS LAVENE DOWNS

Gamma chapter of Delta Sigma Pi sorority, of which Miss Lavene Downs is president, will hold a luncheon and initiation on Saturday at the Edgewater Beach hotel. The Misses Alice Hatland and Hilda Boice will be initiated into the chapter.

Dancing Pupils Will Entertain

Pupils of Antoinette Ludwig, the dancer, formerly connected with the Chicago Opera company, will give a dance divertissement on Saturday afternoon at Central Music hall. Among the young girls who will take part in the entertainment is Miss Agnes Laycock, a 16 year old miss, who will dance to the music of Franz von Blon's "Whispering Flowers." Miss Laycock is regarded as one of the most promising pupils of the school.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The woman's auxiliary of the Presbyterian Training School for Nurses will give a reception at 8 o'clock tonight in the new home of the school, 1823 Prairie avenue. Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock the graduating exercises of the school will be held in the chapel of Second Presbyterian church, Michigan avenue and Twentieth street.

Tomorrow afternoon the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Isaiah Woman's club will be held at Isaiah temple.

The monthly meeting of the Stonewall Jackson chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held on Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Ernest Bell, 7706 North Marshfield avenue.

The Chicago section of the Council of Jewish Women will have its annual luncheon today at 12:30 o'clock at the Hotel La Salle.

Mrs. Henry Field and Arthur Tree Will Be Married Tomorrow

Mrs. Henry Dibblee of 1100 Lake Shore drive, great-aunt of the late Henry Field, has received a cable anent the marriage of Mr. Field's widow, Mrs. Nancy Perkins Field, to another of Mrs. Dibblee's grand-nephews, Arthur Ronald Lambert Tree.

The wedding is expected to take place tomorrow in London. It is of especial interest to Chicago society on account of the close associations of both the bride and bridegroom with well known Chicagoans.

The romance started when Mrs. Field and Mr. Tree recently were guests of Mrs. Fields' aunt, Lady Astor, at Cliveden. Mr. Tree is the son of Lady Beatty (formerly Ethel Field of Chicago) and a grandson of the late Lambert Tree, also of Chicago. Miss Alice Perkins, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson of New York, an aunt of Mrs. Field, will be present at the wedding.

Miss Nancy Perkins and Henry Field were married Feb. 7, 1917, at Mrs. Gibson's residence in New York. Mr. Field died in July of the same year.

Beef and Cabbage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—[Special Correspondence.]—A picturesque article could be written on the chefs of California. They are famous from Tom Coney, of whom they are inordinately proud in Los Angeles, to those of the biggest hotels here.

"Cut a thin slice of beef from the shoulder blade or flank, season well, and fry quickly. Slice and parboil some onions—parboil some cabbage, chopped parsley, and sliced raw potatoes. Into a baking dish put a few strips of bacon, then a layer of cabbage, then the potatoes, the meat, and the parsley. Cover with another layer of cabbage, add the drippings of the steak, cover with a lid, and bake in the oven for one hour and a half. Serve in the same dish. Should it evaporate too much, add a little broth or gravy."

Chefs' recipes are rarely specific as to quantities.

Marie Hoover Ellis and Paulist Choir Provide Sunday Music

BY W. L. HUBBARD.

Marie Hoover Ellis played a piano recital in Kimball hall yesterday before an audience friendly in disposition and ample in size. Her program began with the Schumann "Kreisleriana," followed by a Chopin group made up of the comparatively unfamiliar eighth study from the opus 10, the well known D Flat Prelude, and the Ballade in F.

The latter half of the offering included the Alkan Study, "The Wind," a bright Serenade by Rachmaninoff, the MacDowell "Hungarian," and compositions by Henselt, Leschetizky and Liszt.

Miss Hoover proved herself the possessor of fingers fleet and sure, and barring an inclination to oversentimentalize the Chopin Prelude and Ballade, her readings were musicianly and pleasing.

Such compositions as the Alkan Study she plays in highly acceptable manner, and her interpretation of the Rachmaninoff and MacDowell selections called for commendation.

In Orchestra hall, the Paulist choir, under the leadership of Le Roy Wetzel, presented a lengthy program made up of half of sacred selections and half of solos and secular numbers.

The choir, which under its former leader, Father Finn, gained high musical proficiency, was largely disrupted, it is understood, when he went to New York to live, and took with him many of the principal singers. Mr. Wetzel, to whom has fallen the difficult and thankless task of rebuilding the organization, demonstrated he has brought together a body of fine voiced, capable vocalists and that he is bringing them into excellent shape.

There was much in the singing that merited hearty acknowledgement and commendation, and the future of the organization looks bright.

OAK PARK BEAUTY AT BELOIT COLLEGE WINS NEW HONOR

Miss Susan Lowrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lowrey of 303 Maple avenue, Oak Park, whose verve and good looks won her the title of "the most popular girl in Beloit college" last winter, is still winning honors.

SUE LOWREY.

RAINY SPRING TO MAKE CORNCAKES AND PORK SCARCE

Farmers Held Up in Plowing and Seeding.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Corn cakes and pork will be scarce in Chicago next winter if the farmers do not have more sunshine and less rain. The late spring has caused a serious delay in seeding oats and plowing corn land. It has been so wet that men have been unable to get into the fields with teams and tractors to work the ground and finish sowing oats.

There are hundreds of acres of oats yet to be sown in Illinois. Ordinarily most all of the oats would have been in by the first of May. Most of the corn ground should be turned over by this time, but comparatively few acres have been plowed.

Farmers Are Discouraged.

A trip over the state revealed that farmers are discouraged. They would frequently say, "We try to be optimistic about crop conditions this year, but the cold, rainy spell has lasted so long we'll have to admit that many of us are blue." Conditions are apparently worse in the central part of the state than near the extreme north or south borders.

"We may expect a low yield of oats per acre unless we have a cool, moist season," explained Prof. J. C. Hackleman, crop expert at the University of Illinois. "If it is dry during the last of May, and particularly June, the crop will be cut short. Many of the farmers are plowing their corn ground too wet, and they will probably have trouble in working the seedbed into shape later. While I would not advise plowing land when it has too much moisture, I think I'd drive through some of the wet spots myself if there were only a few."

Oats Sown in South.

Practically all of the oats have been sown in the extreme southern part of the state, but as you come this way the acreage of oats yet to be sown increases.

"We are three weeks behind with our oats sowing," said C. H. Oathout, farm adviser of Champaign county, "and it has been so wet that breaking ground for corn has just started. We are getting a poor stand with our oats. It has been so wet and cold that they fail to sprout and are decaying in the ground."

Here and there over the state a few farmers may be seen in the wet fields with their tractors chugging along, occasionally the big wheels stopping in a soft spot to sling mud.

"It is discouraging here in McLean county," remarked O. D. Center, farm adviser. "We have only about 60 per cent of our oats sown, and are at least three weeks late with our work. I know one man who has 300 acres of oats yet to sow. I'm advising farmers to go ahead and sow their oats late if they use an early variety

Little Corn Land Plowed.

"We ordinarily have 75 per cent of our corn land plowed by this time, but so far there has been only a few acres turned over. Labor is our serious problem. If we do not get our oats in, or there is a poor stand, we will have to turn that land over and plant corn."

Not more than 60 per cent of the normal acreage of oats has been sown in Woodford county, according to Howard Leonard, president of the Illinois Agricultural association. "Farmers who own tractors in every section of the state are planning to keep their plows going night and day in order to make up for the late season," Mr. Leonard said.

Behind in Seeding Oats.

Of course, the season is later in the northern part of Illinois, and the delay in field work in this section is not as serious as it is in the central part of the state. E. Heaton, farm adviser of Du Page county, says they only have about 50 per cent of their oats sown.

According to C. J. Cooper of De Kalb county, the farmers are about three weeks behind with their work. Fred Henke of Madison county, a dairy district in the northern part of the state, reports similar conditions in his section.

FARM JOBS OPEN TO CITY MEN; COME AND PICK ONE OUT

THE TRIBUNE Farm Bureau editor has a list of farmers who want help. He will be glad to submit this list today to the young men in Chicago who want to go back to the farm. It is a question of matching the needs of particular cases.

There are a number of farmers who will take young married men who have not had much experience on the farm. The great majority of places in the country, however, call for experienced men. All those who have had farm experience are urged to call at the office of the Illinois Agricultural association, 130 North Wells street. E. L. Bills of this association is the man to see. He will have a farmer in the office this morning to interview applicants, and he has sent word throughout the state to farm advisers to file their farm places open with the association.

There are hundreds of farmers who need help. The TRIBUNE editor cannot write letters to each applicant. Come down this afternoon or evening to see the editor, or call at the office of the agricultural association.

Carpenters Give Sunday to Aid of Storm Victims

Seventy-five carpenters of Local 181, in charge of Harry Jensen, spent yesterday working on the seventy-five houses wrecked or destroyed in Dunning by the tornado. When they left twelve houses had been partly rebuilt and many had been repaired. The home of John Drayer, who has been living in a neighbor's attic with his family, was practically finished. Ald. Edward Armitage of the tornado relief committee says it will take more than $60,000 to restore the houses. The carpenters were given a noon luncheon by the Red Cross.

Five Names Are Added to Police List of "Missing"

TIGHT CREDIT IS REFLECTED UPON STOCK MARKETS

The New York Times.

New York, May 2.—[Special.]—Speculation continued last week to draw back its outposts under pressure from surrounding credit forces.

It is too early to determine whether there were other important and lasting influences at work besides those visualized through 12 to 15 per cent call money for the stock market.

But of tight credit there was no question, and the position of the Federal Reserve bank showed in terms unmistakably that for the time being agricultural and business needs of the interior were getting the right of way over less material demands in the markets.

Rediscounts for other reserve banks figured prominently in the local bank's loan account, and when it is considered that a total of about $85,000,000 of such rediscounts appeared in the weekly statement, whereas there were none three weeks ago, evidence is not lacking that credit strain throughout the country has increased decidedly.

Unusual Load on Banks.

Some of the reasons are not difficult to discover. The spring season entered without the usual easement of money rates, and this by itself was indicative of an unusual load upon the banks.

Financing of crop planting was amplified over other years because of high wages and the high cost of machinery and fertilizer.

The requirements of industry and trade have been expanded by the same powers affecting agriculture, and, to add to the difficulties of manufacturers and distributing agencies, the railroad strikes have tied up a huge amount of goods in warehouse or in transit. When products cannot be moved freely from factory to consumer, payment is delayed, and, instead of liquidating bank loans with expected proceeds of sales, producers are forced to borrow more in order to maintain working capital.

Strain Is Temporary.

It stands to reason, of course, that part of the current credit strain is temporary. The railroads gradually will lessen congestion at terminals and remove embargoes on the receipt of new shipments. Loans will be reduced. There is a possibility that loans in the near future will be reduced to a degree greater than will be entailed in the release of funds congealed in goods which were halted on their way to consumers.

Not only is banking opinion firmly committed to a contraction of the general loan account, but also signs are not lacking that the distribution of goods will be hastened by thoughts of lower prices later on. The trade reviews mention an increasing tendency of merchants to cut down their stocks, impelled by the resistance of the public to high prices.

Weigh Severe Reaction.

The question uppermost in stock market circles is this: Did the severe reaction of the second half of April foreshadow a lasting movement in the retrenchment of business, or was it merely a jolt administered by the lack of credit for speculative use?

The fact stands out that the decline began almost immediately after news came of a drastic readjustment of business to a more conservative basis in Japan.

There is not, however, a direct parallel to be drawn between conditions here and in the far eastern country. Speculation in securities and commodities in the United States was never so heading as reports show it to have been in Japan, and the trade positions of the two countries are quite dissimilar. Japan experienced an unfavorable trade balance of about $130,000,000 in the first quarter of 1920, which naturally had an adverse effect upon domestic industrial undertakings. It corresponded to an overproduction of goods. In the United States there is a vast underproduction, and such price concessions as have occurred appear to be the result, as has been said, of exasperation of consumers over prices and not of a flooded market.

Reaction Might Be Beneficial.

There are authorities who maintain that a reaction of prices, instead of bringing a curtailed demand, actually would make the demand more healthy, presupposing that the extravagance seen in many directions during 1919 is definitely on the wane.

Whatever may be the theories or deductions from business conditions, they are, from the stock market point of view, outside the immediate effects of tight credit. The speculator sees that average industrial and railroad shares have fallen about 13 points since April 1, with declines running from 10 to 50 points in particular issues, the favorites of a great body of traders.

Clearer than suppositions of business improvement or depression is the fact that when call money, still the Wall street barometer of credit, climbs above 9 to 10 per cent, it is difficult to "bull" stocks and the way to "bear" stocks is more easier.

Sentiment follows the ticker to a much greater extent than the ticker record made from day to day by the trend of sentiment. Thus, last week the persistent decline of quotations was more efficient in making the street blue than the unsettling rumors which spread abroad.

CAR SCARCITY IS BIG FEATURE IN ALL GRAINS

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Grain prices reached new high levels last week with No. 2 yellow corn at $1.89, May at $1.78, No. 2 white oats $1.13½ in the sample market and May delivery $1.02, rye $2.17 and May $2.16, barley $1.85 for cash and $1.78 for May. Corn and oat prices held at the last, with a moderate reaction in other grains from the top.

Advances since Feb. 9, when prices were the lowest, have been 53½c on May corn, 45¾c on July, and 39¾c on September. May oats have advanced 28¾c and July 23⅝c, while rye has led all months with gains of 69¾c for May and 62¾c for July. May barley is up 50c, this despite efforts on the part of most speculators to keep prices down. Wheat is up 51c in about the same time on export buying.

Exporters bought wheat in a moderate way last week, paying the highest of the season, $3.08 for hard and red winter at New York and $3 at Georgian Bay ports. They are also bidding $2.96 for wheat, first half of June shipments at Georgian Bay ports, and getting little.

With the breakdown in railroad transportation as a result of labor troubles and the car shortage the entire country is suffering from the effects of strikes and from an apparent indisposition on the part of workers to increase production. It is an unprecedented situation.

Rail Operations Slow.

The railroads are operating at about 50 to 60 per cent and a few at 75 per cent of their freight handling capacity. An official of one of the largest western systems says they are only furnishing 60 per cent of their orders for box cars.

Strikes break out in a new place after being settled at others and $1,000,000,000 is tied up in the banks on advances made on grain, provisions, and all kinds of commodities now on the railroads throughout the country.

Money is tight and there are no indications of any improvement in the near future. Banks are discriminating in their loans, although taking care of the grain that is being moved as well as that held in interior elevators awaiting cars to move to terminal markets and consuming points generally. The banks always take care of the grain interests, as warehouse receipts for grain are the best liquid asset they can get. These can always be converted into cash within the shortest notice.

Crop Season Late.

The crop outlook is unfavorable. The season is two to three weeks late in all sections.

Estimates on the winter wheat crop, as made by two local statisticians last week, are 470,000,000 to 482,000,000 bu, with condition ranging from 77.2 to 78.3. Last month the government gave it as 75.8 and last year at 100.5, while at harvest it was 89 and the yield was 732,000,000 bu, compared with an average for 1913-'17, as given by the government, of 555,000,000 bu. Indications are for no increase in the oat acreage; more corn is being put in in the southwest, while, as regards Illinois and Iowa, there may be a small decrease. The government report due May 8 is expected to cut the winter wheat acreage 4,000,000 and raise condition slightly.

The corn market is in a position where the largest traders are advising against selling short and are also afraid to be long, so that a majority of them are doing practically nothing. The market is in a position where it might advance sharply or have a decided and unexpected break should the railroad situation improve and receipts largely increase. The short interest has been cut down, and there is little new buying coming in.

Corn Prices for Week.

May corn closed Saturday at $1.75⅝, dp 3¼c for the week; July, $1.65⅝@1.65½, up 5¼c; September, $1.57½@1.57⅝, up 3¼c. Prices for the week follow:

Oats at Record Levels.

May oats crossed the dollar mark last week for the first time in the history of the trade. Heavy selling accompanied the advance and offerings were readily absorbed by local and eastern shorts. There has been immense spreading between Chicago and Winnipeg and May in the latter market touched $1.13⅜, also a high mark. There are not enough oats moving to cause uneasiness among holders, primary receipts last week being only 2,490,000 bu, an increase of 443,000 bu for the week, and a decrease of 2,075,000 bu from last year.

Crop conditions are bullish. Prices are so high that new speculation is checked. There is no hedging pressure, and the deferred futures represent short sales.

May closed Saturday at 1.01⅜@1.02, up 5⅜c; July, 89⅝@89½c, up 2¾c, and September 75⅝c, up 1c for the week. Prices for the week follow:

Liquidation In Meats.

A feature of the provision market was the liberal liquidation in meats, particularly short ribs, with a fair pressure from lard manufacturers and speculative holders. There has been a big decline and lard is ne[arly] 14 per 100 lower than last year. Ri[bs] are off $10.45 per 100, and pork is $18.70 lower.

Closing prices show May pork off $1.10 and July 25c lower for the week. Lard is unchanged to 5c higher, the latter on May, and short ribs 42½c to 57½c lower, with May leading. Prices for the week follow:

FIGURES SHOW U. S. WILL SOON GO "OIL" BROKE

Washington, D. C., May 2.—[Special.]—The United States is consuming its oil supply fourteen times as fast as the rest of the world.

This fact is brought to the public attention by the United States geological survey in a warning of fuel shortage to come if the present rate of consumption is continued.

The last figures on the world's oil supply, the geological survey's report shows, disclose that foreign countries are using only one-half as much petroleum as the United States, while they have seven times as much oil in the ground.

"They are now using about 200,000,000 barrels of oil yearly," says the report, "but they have resources large enough to last over 250 years at this rate of consumption. In striking contrast are the production figures for the United States, which, at the present rate of more than 400,000,000 barrels a year, has only an eighteen years' supply."

Northern States Power Shows $1,493,257 Net

The annual report of the Northern States Power company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1919, shows net profits, after charges and federal taxes, of $1,493,257. After preferred dividends the balance was $816,258, equivalent to 5.12 per cent on the $6,170,000 common stock outstanding. No dividends were paid on the common stock, the balance being carried to surplus, which now is $1,067,716.

Executives and Managers.

SITUATION WTD—I AM COMPLETING MY 20th year with original employers, a St. Louis corporation doing the largest business of its kind in the country; during the past ten years I have had exclusive charge of all sales for this concern in the middle western states, making special trips to all parts of the country calling on architects and public officials. My earnings last year were more than $10,000, but know that my present work will never afford a true outlet for my real ability. If you are a large or growing house wishing the services of a high class man and can show me that you appreciate real ability, I would like to hear from you and arrange for an interview. I do not care what your line or where your work is located me. I am 34 years of age, and have always been a resident of St. Louis. Address C L 8, Tribune.

SITUATION WTD—OFFICE MANAGER.
Young man desires to connect with some wide awake jobbing or manufacturing concern. My experience is as follows: 12 years auditing, systematizing, credit, and financial man; 3 years salesmanship; 3 years public accountant and expert on systems and office management; $3,000 per year salary; A1 references. Address Y 423, Tribune.

Salesmen, Solicitors Etc.

SALESMEN—HIGH GRADE—WITH SPECIAL ADVANCEMENT OPPORTUNITY.
If you have been accustomed to selling in large amounts to big men, we are going to give you an opportunity to develop your REAL EARNING POWER. Our proposition offers you unlimited BIG MONEY. We will not be satisfied if you do not earn at least $1,000 per month. This is no "ringing door bells" or "selling stock" proposition. You will be given exclusive territory and co-operation which will insure you success from the start. If you are a specialty salesman, if you have successfully sold stocks, bonds, typewriters, insurance—if you are employed now but your earning capacity is limited by the proposition you are working on, put our time against yours. In addition, in enlarging our organization, we will take from the ranks of our successful salesmen territorial managers, who will have a wonderful advancement opportunity. Don't delay—call in person, and we will lay the entire proposition before you.
Suite 1317
127 N. Dearborn-st., Chicago.

SALESMAN—A FACTORY MANUFACTURing a nationally known line of Suspenders, Belts, Garters, and Arm Bands has an exceptional opening in greater Chicago for a high class salesman with some manufacturing ability on commission with liberal drawing account. We have considerable trade already established, and want a man of assured qualifications and experience and one who can bring to his task ability, energy, and initiative. We have an office and stock in Chicago to be under his supervision, which will be an important factor toward a satisfactory income. Kindly reply, give us a brief history of your selling experience and facts concerning your acquaintance with Chicago haberdashery and clothing trade. Only applications from men measuring up to our requirements can be considered. Address C L 11, Tribune.

SALESMEN—MEN WHO ARE SUFFICIENT-ly courageous to go after what they so earnestly desire; for example, better positions and greater pay. Are you willing to develop your given qualifications? If so, let us show you how to improve your business, social and financial standing. Our men make good, our proposition is to the interest of the public, every man and woman a life of prospect. Every sale leads to another. For further information call before 8 p. m., Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, 4048 Armitage-av., 2d floor, and ask for MR. J. G. SWENSON.

SALESMEN—WE WANT THE KIND OF men you would like to be—the kind that is wanted by every good enterprise. You possess such qualities—let us show you just how to put them into practice. Every time you interest a party you are sure to make a friend which leads to greater success. Men only are wanted who are ready to help themselves. What is your desire? For interview, call 4804 N. 2. It affords rapid advancement for persons of ability. Salaries of $1,500 to $1,700 and more are reached within a comparatively short time.
3. It pays $65 per month during a short training period in our well equipped departmental schools.
4. It pays $75 per month as soon as training is completed, with rapid advancement thereafter on merit.
5. It is exceptionally interesting work. A large telegraph office is a live place, constituting, as it does, the pulse of the business life of our country.
Positions now available include automatic telegraph operating, telephone-telegraph operating, branch office telephoning, filing and postions as traffic clerks.
Call at employment department.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT AND COMPANY

The May Sales of 1920

May at this store has come to mean a time of opportunity for the making of summertime preparations with greatest advantage. And that the Sales of this year will but add to this tradition, we feel certain. They present—

Lingerie — Silken Undergarments — Corsets
House Dresses — Knit Underwear — Baby Wear
Women's, Misses' and Girls' Tub Frocks
Tub Skirts — Blouses
Silk Gloves — Silk Hosiery

Definite word concerning certain of these May Sales is given here. Each individual division, however, affords values equally worthy. And each assortment carries the impress of that high quality for which merchandise from this store is known.

There's Uncommon Smartness in These

Women's New Oxfords and Pumps

Smartness that can come only from most careful line-designing—fine leather quality—and expert workmanship. These three qualities combine in this footwear.

Both the pumps and Oxfords have street-weight soles and heels of the height desirable for walking. They are to be had in tan and black calfskin, patent leather, brown and black kidskin.

Priced Advantageously at $13.50 Pair.

Blouses in the May Sales

Forecast a Summer of Cool and Lovely Styles

Dotted Swisses—delightfully quaint they sound and charming indeed they are. Organdies of exquisite tintings, voiles, fine and sheer, batistes and crisp linens fashion these blouses. And their success is assured.

The May Sale Prices Begin at $3.75 and Range Up to $16.50

Laces of real beauty are used on collars and cuffs. Hand-stitchery is daintily applied. Then there are frills in new ways and tucks smart and tailored. Four of these blouses are sketched.

In the panel above—the blouse at the right is of white organdie with vestee of lace and net. $8.50. At the left—a blouse of imported color-striped dimity with a clever frill. $6.50.

May Sale Days in

Babies' Section

Who can really describe Babies' Own Section in May Day attire?

And Everywhere May Sale Values Unusual

In the May First Selling

Silk Hosiery

for Women

The pricing, low in itself, can only serve as indication of the actual values. The quality of the hosiery alone can give full meaning to the price.

Full Fashioned and of Thread Silk

All sizes are to be had in these silk stockings (some of which have slight imperfections). In black, in white, and the much desired shades of brown.

—$1.65 Pair

First Floor, North.

Continuing—the Sale of Women's Milanese Silk Gloves

Women's 16-Button Silk Gloves, $2.35 Pair

Women's 12-Button Silk Gloves, $1.85 Pair

Women's 2-Clasp Silk Gloves, $1.35 Pair

Although the quantity is large, the value is of such an unusual nature that active selling cannot but result.

This sale will continue only while present assortments last.

First Floor, North.

New Ginghams

Come from Scotland

One may choose these in checks, in cross-bars and in striped patterns, uncommon in color combinations. 32 inches wide. At $1.50 yard.

Second Floor, North.

In the Midseason Sale 25,000 Yards of

Silks of the Season Underpriced at $2.85 Yard

That such a selling can take place means the very successful result of plans and preparations carefully undertaken and perfectly completed. The pricing means substantial savings in the silks in immediate demand.

House Dresses in the May Sale

Introduce the New Styles at Special Prices

Emphasis is placed very definitely on the style. For that has become a factor to be reckoned with in house dresses.

Here Are House Dresses of Gingham, of Cool Lawns, of Printed Voiles, of Percales, at $4.50 to $8.95

Prices vary with the fabric and style. But invariable always is the fine quality of the materials used, the excellence of workmanship, the fine points of finish.

The House Dresses Sketched Are $5.95 and $8.95

At $5.95 the house dress sketched at the right in plain color chambray with collar of white pique. At $8.95 the house dress sketched at the left of gingham—youth-giving in line and with a large sash.

Third Floor, North.

May Sale Corsets

Especially the Mme. Irene

At $8.50 and $13.50

The $8.50 corset of flesh batiste, with a low line at the top and a rather long skirt boned to give a supple effect. This is for the slender figure.

The $13.50 corset of flesh colored broche, made with the longer skirt and the necessary elastic insets. This model also has a low top and is exceptionally good for the medium and larger figures.

Dainty Satin Corsets Unusually Priced, $5

This is one of the most interesting of May Sale values. The flesh-colored satin is of excellent quality, firm and fine. There is, too, a dainty embroidery used as finish. Not a Mme. Irene.

Third Floor, North.

Knit Underwear

At May Sale Prices

Women's Union Suits Priced $1.35 Each

Women's Union Suits at 95c the Suit

Women's Cotton Vests, 65c

Third Floor, North.

New Frocks That Come With May

Provide for Every Hour of a Summer Day

A fashion occasion one might term this Maytime event in announcement here. For through it is given introduction to the new in summer styles. The whole cycle of a summer day is glimpsed.

Here are gingham and linen frocks that tell of golf course or tennis court. Daintily-cool voiles that are delightfully in the picture of club veranda. And frocks for dinner and dance occasions.

Prices Are $10 to $40 Varying With Fabric and With Fashion

Women and misses who appreciate the advantage of choosing from fresh assortments at their newest will be early comers to these May Day sellings.

In the Sketch Frocks for Women and Misses at $30 and $35

At $30 are frocks of flowered voiles for misses. These are in tan or in darker colors, which add to their practicalness without detracting from daintiness. Sketched at the right.

Fourth Floor, North and South.

New Tub Skirts in the May Sale at $6.50 to $20

Styles entirely different mark these tub skirts 1920 new. Pockets there are, but differently fashioned. Even belts and buttons take on a new appearance.

Cotton Tricotines and Gabardines Surf Satin (A Lustrous Cotton Fabric) Fashion These Skirts

Fourth Floor, East.

Tub Frocks for Girls in the May Sales

The last days of school—and then vacation. That means a plentiful supply of fresh and new tub frocks. The very sort that the school girl can choose now and with certain price advantage because of the May Sale.

There are colorful gingham frocks for her play hours, lovely white frocks afrill with laces for her dress-up occasions. Prices, according to fashion and fabrics, $3.50 to $15.

Fourth Floor, East.

$8.95 $7.95 $8.95 $5.95 $6.95

The May Sale of Undermuslins

At Pricings That Bring Savings of the Substantial Sort

Once again this sale will prove a source of satisfaction to the woman skilled in the ways of a wise economy. For the value-giving is of that order which has its foundation in merchandise of high quality and a price schedule emphatically moderate. By way of example—

Certain Crepe de Chine Night-Dresses in the Sale, $6.95, $7.95 and $8.95

Crepe de Chine night-dresses at $7.95 are hand-embroidered and come from Japan. You may choose these in a variety of daintily fine patterns.

At $8.95 there are crepe de Chine night-dresses in the sleeveless style, with lace bandings. Others up to $29.75.

Lovely Hand-made Philippine Lingerie

This exquisite lingerie which women have come to know at its best in these sections is presented in this sale. There are night-dresses and envelope chemises, hand-embroidered and hand-made, from $2.95 to $12.75.

Crepe de Chine Bloomers at $6.95

It is a most unusual group of crepe de Chine envelope chemises at $5.95. Some in tailored styles. Some with real lace motifs. Others up to $16.75.

The bloomers are simple or elaborate. Many have points of lace, and lace frills held at the knee by silken ribbons. $6.95.

American-made Lingerie Finer Than Ever

A plentiful supply of this lingerie is indeed practical. Fine fabrics have been chosen, and fine laces and embroideries. In these groups one finds night-dresses and envelope chemises at prices from $1.95 to $5.95.

Concerning the Silken Petticoats Brought by the May Sales, $5.95 to $29.75

Here are the simple silken petticoats with just scalloped hems, and others more elaborate with embroidery. Then there are charming affairs with flounces of chiffons and ribbons for the softest of afternoon frocks. The petticoat pictured, $8.95.

Children's and Misses' Undermuslins All at May Sale Prices

The same specialization that enters into the assembling of lingerie for grown-ups is noted in these groups for children and misses. Here are princess slips and petticoats, night-dresses and pajamas, always of fine fabrics, simple and in good taste.

Third Floor, North.
